Lehman-Jackson Elem. School has career day

The 5th and 6th grade students at the Lehman-Jackson Elementary School recently participated in a Career Day Program. The program is in its fifth year and was designed to promote career awareness amongst the students. It helps the students become more aware of careers they may not have previously been aware of and it stresses the importance of a good education as it applies to all careers.

The students heard from the following people who volunteered their time to come to the school to give demonstrations and discuss their careers: John Hudak, Chef at the Woodlands; Mrs. Sandy Turner, Green Valley Nursery; Curtis Swanson, Swanson's Funeral Home; Johanna Miller, Johann'a Beauty Shop; Rev. Michael Shambora, Lehman United Methodist Church; Dan Gallagher, WBRE-TV 28; Debbie Roberts, Nurse.

The Career Day Program was coordinated by 6th grade teacher, Mr. Thomas Williams. The students and teachers would like to thank all of the volunteers for taking time out of their busy schedules to provide them with an interesting and informative experience.

Phillips awarded scholarship for academic excellence

A Marywood College dietetic student, from Dallas has been awarded a scholarship for outstanding academic work by national organizations.

James Phillips, RD 2, Overbrook Ave., Dallas, has been awarded the Dorothy Macrae Hyman Memorial Scholarship. He has also won the Educational Foundation Scholarship Award from the National Restaurant Association and Marywood's Sister M. Jamesine Fraser Endowed Scholarship.

Phillips, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Phillips, is a member of Kappa Omicron Phi, the American Dietetic Association and the Marywood Student Dietetic Association.

A senior in Marywood's coordinated dietetics program, he is employed as first cook at the Hilton at Lackawanna Station and plans a career as an administrative dietitian.

William Gorton admitted to PA bar association

William T. Gorton, III, a former Dallas native, has been admitted to the Pennsylvania Bar to practice law. He is now an associate with the Philadelphia law firm of Baskin Flaherty Elliott and Mannino, P.C.

Mr. Gorton, the oldest son of Sally Gorton, is a graduate of Dallas High School. His undergraduate studies were at Penn State, and he graduated with distinction from the University of Kentucky College of Law. Before entering law school, Mr. Gorton worked as an associate and manager for Skelly and Loy Engineers-Consultants in Lexington, Kentucky, where he managed engineering and environmental consulting projects throughout the U.S.

SADD held kickoff assembly

The SADD organization of Dallas Middle School had a kickoff assembly on Monday, Dec. 19, to recruit new members. Mrs. Lenore Rosencrans, Luzerne County SADD Advisor, was the featured speaker. A film will be shown on the National SADD Chapter. Ms. Robyn Jones, health educator, and two students, Kristen Gurdin and Jason Getz will offer remarks on the school's chapter.
