Blue Shield of Northeast Pennsylvania. The NEPAHA works to promote education and to advance the welfare of all Northeastern Pennsylvania auxiliary members. The Northeast region is comprised of 25 hospitals spread over 12 counties.

Lynn Borton honored by Misericordia

Lynn Borton of Harveys Lake was one of five senior Occupational Therapy (O.T.) students recently honored by their faculty and peers at College Misericordia. Occupational therapists concentrate on returning the handicapped or challenged individual to maximum daily independence in work, self-care and leisure occupation.

Borton won the O.T. Self-Study Award of Appreciation.

Pugh and Hudick named to 'Who's Who'

Karen Pugh, a College Misericordia senior and resident of Shavertown, and Donna Hudick, a College Misericordia senior and resident of Dallas, were named to the 1988-89 "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges."

Students are chosen to "Who's Who" by virtue of their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for success.

Pugh, a music major, has made Misericordia's Dean's List several semesters. She is also a member of Campus Ministry and was twice selected to the Intercollegiate Chorus Festival. Pugh spent last summer working at Misericordia's day camp for children with special needs.

Hudick, a Medical Technology major, has been on Misericordia's Dean's List for six semesters and is a member of the Honors program. She has served as Biology Club secretary and has been a member for seven semesters. Hudick has also been a Red Cross blood drive volunteer and is a tutor at Misericordia.

Mimes visit Dallas Middle School

A special assembly was recently held at the Dallas Middle School. The featured performers were David and Carol Geyer of IMAGIMIME. Imagimime's educational and entertaining mime program contained seven mime selections with taped musical accompaniment and lots of audience participation.
