EDITOR/REPORTER

The Abington Journal is interviewing now for the position of Editor/reporter, for an opening that will arise in January. This full-time position includes covering meetings, news and sports stories; organizing and supervising coverage by a part-time writer; editing contributed copy; taking some photographs, and laying out the newspaper pages. It is an exciting, challenging and creative job.

The ideal candidate will have some journalism experience or training, a feel for the communities we serve, and high standards of quality and productivity. A high energy level is a great asset.

This position offers a great deal of opportunity to shape and direct the coverage of news and events and the chance to develop news and feature writing and editing skills. The person filling this role will also be able to learn about all facets of the newspaper.

If you are interested, please reply with a letter and resume to:

Ron Bartizek, Publisher
