

Bowling news

The holiday week shortened the league action at Back Mountain Bowl as leagues took time off to host or attend Yuletide parties. Some of the leagues showed up to bowl and turned in the following results.

In the Roth Novelty-Back Mountain Classic League, Wally Moore of Ridano's Pizza team burned the lanes with a 240-242 (674) and Mark Schmoll hit a big 221-225-211 (675) to lead their team to taking all from Davis Trophy. D. Purvin added 202-205-233 (640) to help the cause and Rick Fountain rolled 565. P. Foglietti spilled the pins for 244-223 (658) and F. Harris rolled 211-263 (641) for the Davis fire. R. Andrasko hit 222 (571), D. Williams 237 (574) and B. Harris added 528. Gino's Shoe Store took all from Fieldhouse Sporting Goods led by R. Shoemaker's 216 (577) were enough for two points from Yenson Refrigeration over Back Mt. Coffee, whose J. Roan and S. Vigorito rolled 587's with Steve's including a 224. Valley Chevrolet took two from Newhart Insurance aided by Glen Mazer's 552 and K. Spencer, Sr.'s 545. R. Clemow rolled 218 (521). T. Johnson paced the insurance men with 223 (588) and L. Wolfe hit 567.

The Ladies Country League finished their first half with Fashion Vending coming out on top followed next by Back Mountain Bowl. Castlettes came in third and Grotto Pizza placed fourth. Faux Inn took three from G.H. Harris to move into fifth two games in front of Harris.

High bowlers for the night were L. Cyphers 181 (506), J. Lamoreaux 186 (470), P. Williams 172, E. Roberts 171 and R. Gula 170.

Corvettes shut out the Porsches in the Idetown Compact League with no one able to hit high scores. Emory rolled 523 and Betty hit pins for 176 (477) to pace the Colts to taking all from the Fieros. Tempos blanked the Chargers while Aries picked up three points from the Yugos. The Benz team took three from the Cierras despite Jim rolling 510 for the Cierra five.

Two weeks reports from the Back Mountain Farmers League had the Turkeys taking four from the Moo Moos and earlier four from the Chickies. Ugly Ducklings shut out the Chickies and the week prior dropped three to the Moo Moos. The Thoroughbreds dropped three to the Mules and the week before lost three to the Barn Cats. Black Sheep split 2-2 with the Barn Cats and earlier took three from the Mules.

Hitting high scores last week were A. Hospodar 174 (486), C. Doty 177-190-184 (551), T. Ruger 532, L. Lanning 487, D. Neiman 202, G. Gale 173 (485), B. Lathrop 213 (554). The week previously D. Williams hit 520, T. Ruger 501, M. Carkhuff 180, S. Mathers 184-196 (513), M. Delaney 212 (551), B. Lathrop 516.

In the Native Textiles League Pin Pluckers picked up three from the Ringers while the Sandbaggers were doing the same with Lews Cals. Ballbusters took three from the Alley Cats and the Underdogs surprised everyone by taking three from the Roadrunners. The Beast divided 2-2 with the Bad News Bowlers with T. Johnson hammering pins for 222 (571) for The Beast and R. Clemow hitting them for 202 (563) for the Bad News team. S. Johnson hit the pins for 177 (493) for the Beast.

Fishermen waiting for big winter freeze

Winter has officially arrived. Still, many fishermen are indoors, not waiting for winter's end and the warmth of spring, but rather for cold, bitter cold, to freeze the lakes of the Commonwealth. We call them ice fishermen; others refer to them as a bit crazy. Regardless, ice fishermen are growing in numbers and cannot wait to drill small holes in brittle ice.

The Pennsylvania Fish Commission warns would-be ice fishermen that there are no safe ice conditions reported in the Commonwealth to date. A mild winter and insulting snows have left lakes with nothing more than "skim" ice, not safe for angling purposes.

The Commission favors four inches of clear, solid ice for fishing purposes, more if groups of anglers are fishing in one given area. The Commission warns, however, that this is a rule of thumb and not ever a certainty.
