Petro's "House of Fine Arts Photography" studio will hold open house Sunday

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

Ron Petro's House of Fine Art Photography will hold an Open House, Sunday, February 19, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Petro, a photographer since 1968, first did photography in Vietnam. Later he graduated from Triangle Institute of Professional Photography and then took advanced courses at various seminars and workshops. He is an active member of Northern Central Photographers and has won several awards nationally at professional photographers conventions in Chicago.

Petro has been a resident of Shavertown for the past 15 years. He has been successful in trying different photographic techniques including consultations in makeup, hair styles and appropriate colors and designs to ensure the best fine art portraits.

Petro and his wife, Ann, work together in their business. They do not provide the traditional proofs in their work but instead project images on slides so an example of the finished product is seen on a screen.

Ron and Ann until recently had a studio in their home but opened the House of Fine Arts Photography on Memorial Highway, Shavertown, for the convenience of persons interested in using their services.

Petro uses photography for 'story-telling' whether the subject is children or adults, high school seniors or business executives. He said he likes to create exciting portraits with Techniques of the 90's.

Appointments may be made by stopping in at 194 North Memorial Highway, Shavertown or by calling 675-0572. Petro and his wife, Ann, are also available for consultations.
