Police report

DALLAS BOROUGH Two-car accident on 415

Dallas Borough Patrolman William Norris, Jr. reported that March 11 James Hayward, Jr. of Wilkes-Barre, was driving toward Harveys Lake on Route 415 when his car stuck another that pulled out from Picketts Charge restaurant.

Minnie Hontz of Shavertown was the driver of the second car. James Hayward, Michelle Hayward, passenger, and Mrs. Hontz were removed to the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital by Kunkle and Kingston Township ambulances where they were treated.

Charged with supplying alcohol to minor

Dallas Borough Patrolman James J. Drury charged John Joseph Ackers with selling or providing alcoholic beverages to a minor and violation of the act relative to furnishing liquor or brewed beverages to certain persons.

Patrolman Drury alleged that Acker purchased beer at Hozy K. Main Street, Dallas, and put a six pack of beer on the seat of his car, then returned later to provide the beverage to an 18-year-old minor.

Ackers is scheduled for hearing before District Magistrate Earl Gregory.

DALLAS TOWNSHIP Runs off Overbrook Road

Dallas Township Patrolman Elliot Ide reported that March 13, that Leonard Roginski, RD 3, Dallas, was traveling west on Overbrook Road, Dallas when a car tried to cross in front of him. Roginski said he swerved to miss the car but lost control of his car when it hit cinders on the road. His car went off the east side of Overbrook Road, rolled down a small embankment and come to rest on its side. Roginski's car had to be towed from the scene.

Head-on crash

Patrolman Wayman Miers reported that a two-car accident occurred Sunday, March 12, at the intersection of Demunds and Lake Catalpa Roads, Dallas Township.

David Mead, 35 Pierce St., Kingston, said he was traveling south on Demunds Road when he was blinded by lights of an oncoming car and struck a 1986 GMC driven by Robert Faerber, Jr., Tunkhannock. The two vehicles struck head-on.

Both cars had to be towed from the scene and persons involved in the accident were removed to Nesbitt Hospital by the Kunkle ambulance.
