Scott Perryman awarded Captain's Plaque at Tilton

Scott Perryman, a senior at Tilton School and son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Roberts of Dallas, and Dr. Richard Perryman of Miami, FL, earned a Captain's Plaque at Tilton's recent winter sports awards banquet for his leadership of the boys' varsity basketball team during its '88-'89 season.

Guest speaker at this annual athletic banquet was Suzan Rowe, women's varsity basketball coach at Plymouth (NH) State College, who has the distinction this season of coaching the first PSC women's team in 10 years to qualify for the Little East Conference playoffs.

Tilton School, a coeducational independent boarding school in the Lakes Region, provides a college-preparatory program for high-school-aged students.

Jack Kloeber, Jr. promoted to major

Jack M. Kloeber Jr. was promoted March 1 in a ceremony which included the following statement from the Department of the Army. "The President of the United States has reposed special trust and confidence in the patriotism, valor, fidelity, and abilities of Jack M. Kloeber. In view of these qualities and his potential for increased responsibility, he is therefore promoted in the United States Army to the rank of Major, Field Artillery, Regular Army."

Presiding officer at the ceremony at West Point, N.Y. was Colonel Frank Giordano, head of the Department of Mathematics at the United States Military Academy. Assisting in the pinning on of the gold oak-leaves were his wife, the former Elena Papanopoulos of Yiannitsa, Greece, and his father, Jack M. Kloeber, formerly of Shavertown, now Orange.

Attending the ceremony along with friends and fellow officers were his wife, Elena and children Mary, Jack III, Sophia, sister Priscilla Priestman, niece Gwen Priestman, and parents.

Major Kloeber graduated from Dallas High School in 1973 and began his Army career as a 4 year R.O.T.C. Scholar for undergraduate study at Lehigh University. He completed a Master's Degree in Industrial Engineering specializing in Operations Research at Lehigh. At present he is assigned to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point as instructor in the Department of Mathematics.

The Kloeber family will spend the summer in New Mexico.

Blood donors honored

Jeff Townsend (center), secretary of Northeastern Regional Board of American Red Cross Blood Services presented awards to two blood donors at the recent blood collection held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown. Pearl Biggs, Beaumont, received a plaque as a Deca Donor, five years of giving blood and Desmond Palmer of Scranton, Native Textile employee, who has given 40 pints of blood.

The target goal for the Feb. 28 collection at St. Paul's Lutheran Church was 110 pints which was surpassed by 15 pints. Red Cross officials were pleased with the 125 productive donors and particularly since there were 13 first time donors. This is the second successful collection since November at St. Paul's, the other on Dec. 5 when the target of 110 pints was met. (C.M. Denmon Photo)
