COMMUNITY

Daffodil Days start March 27

The Daffodil, the "Flower of Hope" is a symbol in the fight against cancer. Daffodils will be sold for $4.00 for a bunch of 10 throughout the Wyoming Valley from March 27 - 31, during Daffodil Days, sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

Proceeds from the sale of the flowers will benefit cancer research, education and patient services. Orders can be placed by calling the A.C.S. office at 825-7763 and anyone interested in assisting during Daffodil Days is urged to call.

Pictured above are committee members: from left, Dotti Henry, Dallas Churches and Temples cochairman; Jan Gunster, Dallas Public Relations Director, A.C.S.; CeCe McCarthy, Churches and Temples co-chairman; Sue Demidovitch, Shavertown; Restaurants chairman.

DRUG FREE SCHOOL ZONE - Mary Rice, president of Dallas Woman's Club, presented Superintendent of Dallas Schools with a Drug Free School Zone sign last week at Dallas Senior High School designating the school as the first one in the Dallas and Kingston Township area. Participating in the presentation were front row, from left, Wycallis, John Rogers, Nancy Rowlands, Mary Rice, Martha Reese, Legion V.P.; Nancy Barnard and son Patrick; JoAnn Hall, Robert Cartier; back row, Stuart Oakley, Clem Norman, Leonard Roginski, Ron Mosca, Gus Faerber, Edward Buckley, Thomas Reese, and Dallas Township Officer John Appel. (C.M. Denmon Photo)

Women's Clubs promote drug-free school zones

tion of this act deals with drug involves a minor. offenses "committed within 1000

The members of the Dallas Area feet of real property on which is the funds necessary to provide Federated Women's Clubs in con- located a public, private or paro- Drug Free School Zone signs for junction with the Luzerne County chial school." If convicted, the of- every school (Kindergarten to Federation of Women's Clubs, have fender would receive, in addition Twelfth) in Luzerne County. While joined forces to help promote drug to the regularly imposed sentence, the group realizes that these signs free schools in a positive manner. a minimum confinement of at least will not obliterate drug use, the As of July 1, 1988 Act 31 be- two years and an additional mini- Women's Clubs feel it is their came law in Pennsylvania. A por- mum of one year if the offense responsibility, as a community, to join in the fight against illegal

The goal of the project is to raise drugs.

NPR correspondent Nina Totenberg to lecture at Wilkes speaker for the Rosenn Lecture p.m. in the Darte Center for the rights in the South. Performing Arts, and is open to the public free of charge. Her reports air regularly on NPR's criticallyacclaimed news magazines "All Things Considered," "Morning Edition," and "Weekend Edition."

Nina Totenberg's coverage of the Supreme Court and of legal affairs in general has won her widespread recognition. She has been honored six times by the American Bar Association for her coverage and received the 1987 Media Merit Award from the Association of Trial fairs correspondent for the "Na-

Nina Totenberg, National Public Lawyers of America for continued Radio's award-winning legal affairs excellence in legal reporting. Totencorrespondent, will be the featured berg also won the coveted Sidney Hillman Foundation Award, the Series at Wilkes on Tuesday, March Headliner Award, and the Arm-28. The lecture will be held at 8 strong Award for a series on voting

A frequent contributor to major newspapers and periodicals, she has published articles in "The New York Times," "The Christian Sci-ence Monitor," "Parade," "The New Yorker," and others. She is a frequent speaker at bar associations and law schools.

Before joining NPR in 1975, Totenberg served as Washington editor of "New Times Magazine." Before that she was the legal afObserver" Totenberg's muchquoted profile of J. Edgar Hoover prompted the late director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to pressure the publication to fire her. The Observer printed Hoover's letter and stood by its reporter.

Dean Norman Redlich, New York University, said, "As someone who has taught constitutional law for 27 years, I find that, in addition to explaining complex constitutional issues clearly for law audiences, Totenberg also manages to provide insights that are accurate and useful."

U.S. Department of Justice Solicitor General Rex E. Lee adds, Rosenn Lecture Series in Law and "Nina Totenberg is a good journal- the Humanities.

tional Observer." At the "National ist because she understands not only her profession but also mine. I have been impressed with her command of basic constitutional principles. She is a person of high professional and ethical standards whom I trust implicitly.'

In 1980, the Honorable Max Rosenn celebrated his 10th anniversary as a Judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. To mark the occasion and to express "appreciation for his many contributions to the field of Law, the United States judiciary system, and to the quality of life in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," his former law clerks and other friends initiated the Max

309/415 Plaza, Dallas

675-8282

(per person)

BERMUDA

Group Cruise

June 17-24, 1989

S/S Queen of Bermuda

From: New York to Hamilton & St. Georges

Special (AAA) Rates

As low as

Includes: Motorcoach To Pier; Box Lunch; Cruise 7 Days With

All Meals & Entertainment Aboard Ship; Baggage Handling;

* Other Dates and Cabin Categories available with savings of up to $200

(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(49)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40)
(40) (40

Dallas Fire and Ambulance elects officers for 1989

Association, Inc. held its annual election of officers in January. The 1989 Fire Officers elected Dallas Fire and Ambulance sistant Ambulance Chief.

Corporate elections were also held, and the following officers were elected: Robert Richardson.

were: Theodore Wright, Fire Chief; Brett Slocum, Assistant Fire Chief.

ChiefWright also appointed the following officers: Thomas Doughton, Assistant Chief; Donald Bulford, Assistant Chief; Russell Eyet, Assistant Chief; Timothy Carroll, Captain; Al Shaffer, Engineering Manager; F.J. Barry, Engineer; Frank Morgan, Engineer.

The 1989 Ambulance Officers elected were: Robert Kile, Ambulance Chief; Nancy Ruggere, As-President; Timothy Carroll, Vice President; Lynn Sheehan, Secretary; Paul LaBar, Treasurer; Ed Roth, Trustee; Thomas Doughton, Trustee; William Baker, Trustee; Donald Shaffer, Trustee; Donald Bulford, Trustee.

The Secretary appointed Nancy Ruggere as Corresponding Secretary.

The Corporate officers along with the elected Fire and Ambulance officers will serve as the Board of Control.

INSURANCE RATES

TOO HIGH?

LET US LEND A HAND...

We've already helped countless clients achieve significant savings for comparable or better insurance coverage. Either give us a call or bring a copy of your insurance policy to our office so we can prepare a quote. We're open: Monday and Friday from 8:00 am till 5:00 pm; Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 8:00 am till 8:00 pm; and Saturday from 10:00 am till 2:00 pm.

P.O. Box 1910 • West Side Mall • Kingston, PA 18704 • 283-3333

Senior program needs volunteers

The Retired Senior Volunteer Luzerne/Wyoming Counties Bu-ogram (RSVP) of Luzerne County reau for the Aging and is federally Program (RSVP) of Luzerne County is currently recruiting volunteers from the Back Mountain Area. Volunteers are needed for the library to file, type and shelve books. The days and hours are flexible. Volunteers are also needed in the Meadows Nursing Home to help with escorting, friendly visiting and assisting with meals and programs. The days and hours are also flexible RSVP's requirements for volunteering is to be at least 60 years of age. If you are interested in either position, please call RSVP at 287-5949. RSVP is sponsored by the funded by ACTION.

We're Full Of Surprises! Take a peek at what we've got in store for EASTER!

Russell Stover Chocolates
Jon L. Stopay Candy
Filled	Solid
Easter Baskets	Chocolate Bunnies
Jelly Beans	Chocolate Novelties
Assorted Cream	Peanut Butter
Filled Eggs	Rabbits
1Lb. Purple Foil Wrapped Egg with Stuffed Plush Bunny
* Forget Me Not Easter Greeting Cards *
FINO'S PH	ARMACY
3 Main Street, Dallas, PA 675-1141

DR. ROBERT D. GREENHALGH ANNOUNCES NEW OFFICE LOCATION

Port Taxes; Travel Bag; Cruise Diary

ssociates

Robert D. Greenhalgh, M.D.

Dr. Greenhalgh is board certified by the American Academy of Family Practice

Robert D. Greenhalgh, M.D. announces the opening of his office for the practice of family medicine at: 199 Lake Street Dallas, PA. 18612

Dr. Greenhalgh is currently accepting new patients in need of pediatric, general and geriatric medical care.

24 Hours - Call 675-4995 - 24 Hours Saturday Appointments Are Available House Calls Available As Needed Private, Personalized Care

ON STAFF AT ALL THREE HOSPITALS Mercy Hospital • Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Wilkes-Barre General Hospital

8 B 8 888 B B B

B