Church

When the Union Gospel Church's needs became known, the response from other institutions in Beaumont was instant.

According to church members who have investigated the condition of the damaged structure, both side walls and the rear are salvageable. The front wall and vestibule,

"I hope it will make the congregation stronger. I'm praying that way."

William Rifenbery
Head Trustee

The Seventh Day Adventist Church located across the street offered the use of its building, and the township supervisors offered the old school. The school was chosen, and Rifenbery said the congregation was grateful to the supervisors for allowing them to meet there at no charge. The building is normally rented out.

Work on razing the damaged portion of the church building may start soon. "We'll try to get started as soon as possible - as early as next week," Rifenbery said. The church carried insurance which he thought would cover the cost of repairs.

where the fire started, will have to be replaced. Also damaged beyond repair by the fire was the church's bell, which Rifenbery said had been in the church since it was built 123 years ago.

The early Wednesday morning fire was fought by firemen from the Kunkle, Noxen, Dallas and Northmoreland fire companies. It was thought to have begun at about 1:00 a.m. in the vestibule. That same night, the Bowman's Creek Free Methodist Church was broken into and public address equipment taken. An investigation into the fire and burglary is continuing.

Judith Davis dies from injuries received in accident

The passing of certain individuals leaves a space in a community that can never be filled. It can be compared only to a fragile piece of crystal which when shattered can never be replaced since it is one of a kind.

So it is with the recent death of Judith Davis of Harveys Lake. Like many other residents of that community, Judith Davis was a dedicated volunteer giving freely of her time and talents to serve others. But Judy, as she was known to friends, had something more.

She had compassion, empathy for others, an eternal cheerfulness and a deep love for children - her own and for others. When they were young Judy gave much of her time to organizations in which her daughter and sons were interested and as they grew older she continued her service to these groups in order to keep them active for others.

Judy loved people and in turn people loved her. She always had a smile and a cheery 'hello' for young and old. Her compassion and concern made life more comfortable for more persons than we shall ever realize.

She was not only a member of organizations; when she joined she became an integral part of an them, such as the Order of Eastern Star, the Plymouth Fire Company No. 1 Auxiliary and later the Daniel C. Roberts Fire Company Auxiliary.

Judy was a member of the Harveys Lake Women's Service Club and the Irem Temple Directors Staff-Ladies. She was employed as a manager of the Country Manor Rest Home, Sandy Beach, Harveys Lake, and was a member of the Alderson United Methodist Church.

Last Wednesday, Judith A. Davis, RD 3, Harveys Lake, died in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital from injuries incurred in an automobile accident March 7, 1989. She was born Oct. 7, 1941, in Wilkes-Barre, daughter of William Borland of Nanticoke and the late Elvira Dourand Borland.

Judith and her husband William R. Davis would have celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary, June 27, 1989.

Surviving in addition to her father and husband are a daughter, Brenda; sons, William and David, all at home; brother, William Borland, Plymouth Township; sisters, Jane Borland, Plymouth; Mary Lou Vishneski, Muhlenburg; Mrs. Kathy Wanyo, Larksville.

Funeral was Saturday, April 8, from the Williams Funeral Home, Plymouth, with Rev. William Kennard, pastor of Alderson United Methodist church, officiating.

Memorial contributions, if desired, may be made to the Daniel C. Roberts Fire Company, RD 3, Harveys Lake, 18618.
