Leena Shah to receive Xerox award

Leena Shah, a junior at Wyoming Seminary, will receive the Xerox Award in the Humanities/Social Sciences, established by Xerox Corporation. Xerox Award winners are selected on the basis of scholarship in the humanities or social sciences, leadership and community service. Shaw will receive her Xerox Award during the school's annual awards assembly in May. She also will be eligible to apply for a special Xerox Scholar program at the University of Rochester in Rochester, N.Y.

The Xerox Award in the Humanities/Social Sciences is designed to recognize and reward the academic achievements of outstanding students to emphasize the importance of a broad educational background in preparing students for future careers, according to David T. Kearns, Xerox chairman and chief executive officer.

"This country needs people who can think, communicate, and adjust to rapid and frequent change," Kearns said. "A solid background in humanities and social sciences is crucial in developing these abilities."

Shah is the daughter of Drs. Anilkumar and Evelyn Shah, Dallas.
