PEOPLE

Library gifts

Children of Trinity Nursery School presented two books to the Back Mountain Memorial Library recently for the Children's Library. Above presenting the books to Mrs. M. Rudolph, children's librarian, are from left, Joanna Oliver, Stephen Luksh, Mrs. Rudolph, Kristen Allardyce and Joshua Maye. The books are Dumouse Monsters and Sunlight. (C.M. Denmon Photo)

Debbie Belenski promoted to executive post at First Eastern been promoted to the executive College, in addition to numerous staff at First Eastern Bank, ac- seminars and workshops on subcording to a recent announcement by Richard M. Ross, Jr., chairman public relations. and CEO.

Belenski, who became an assistant cashier, is assistant director of public relations. In that capacity she edits and publishes monthly Dimes; Wyoming Valley Chapter, and weekly employee publications and is actively involved with the preparation of quarterly and annual reports and writing and distributing press releases.

A bank employee since 1978, Belenski was previously a member of First Eastern's Accounting Achievement. Department where she had responsibilities in balancing mortgages, Youth Group and High School commercial and installment loans, Religious Education Classes at and cash management.

Debbie Darling Belenski, has School and has attended Wilkes jects dealing with banking and

> Belenski is a member of the executive board of the Northeast Pennsylvania Chapter, March of American Institute of Banking, and has participated in fund raising events for numerous organizations including the American Cancer Society, American Red Cross, American Heart Association, Big Brothers/Big Sisters and Junior

In addition, she assists with the Gate of Heaven Church, Dallas, She is a graduate of Dallas High and is an aerobic dance instructor

Debbie Darling Belenski at the Greater Wilkes-Barre Family YMCA. She and her husband, Mark Belenski, reside in Dallas.

In our service

Michelle M. Maceiko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Maceiko of RD 2, Harveys Lake, enlisted in the United States Air Force's Delayed Enlistment Program, recently, according to SSgt. Russ Garis, Air Force Recruiter for the Willkes-Barre area.

ter of Joseph J. and Lois I. Rondinella of Shavertown.

The airman is a 1981 graduate of Lyndon B. Johnson High School, Austin.

Pvt. Michael C. Traver, son of David C. and Connie J. Traver of Noxen, has completed a petroleur supply specialist course at the U.S. Army Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, Va. Students received instruction in the receipt, storage, issue, ship-ping and distribution of petroleum products used by the Army.

Holly A. Pelton

who complete this course of instruction are eligible for three hours of college credit in Physical

A 1983 graduate of Dallas High School and a 1987 graduate of

Mansfield University, Mansfield,

Pa., with a Bachelor of Music

Education degree, she joined the Education and Hygiene.

Navy in July 1988.

What costs less than a candy bar, contains no calories, and brings you more information about the Back Mountain each week than any other source?

Every week, the Post brings you:

- ★ The Top Local Stories
- ★ Community News
- ★ News about Local People
- ★ The Only Complete Calendar of Events
- ★ Food Store Advertising
- ★ Other Local and Regional Advertising
- ★ Police Report
- ★ High School Sports

Michelle, a 1987 graduate of Lake-Lehman High School is scheduled for enlistment in the Regular Air Force on July 17. Upon graduation from the Air Force's six week basic training course, she is scheduled to receive technical training in the Administrative Area.

Michelle will be earning credits toward an Associate Degree in applied sciences through the Community College of the Air Force while attending basic and other Air Force technical training schools.

Air Force Airman 1st Class John R. Wilson, son of John B. Wilson of 3015 Val Drive, Austin, Texas, has arrived for duty in West Germany.

Wilson is an imagery interpreter specialist with the 497th Reconnaissance Technical Group.

His wife, Brenda, is the daugh-

He is a 1988 graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, Lehman.

Navy Seaman Recruit Holly A. Pelton, daughter of Reese E. and Sybil I. Pelton of 10 Gordon Ave., Dallas has completed recruit training at Recruit Training Command, Orlando, Fla.

During Pelton's eight-week training cycle, she studied general military subjects designed to prepare her for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic fields.

Pelton's studies included seamanship, close order drill, Naval history and first aid. Personnel and Things To Do

* And Much , Much More!

And It's All About The Back Mountain!

You can have The Dallas Post delivered to your home or office by simply sending in the coupon below, or calling at 675-5211.

- You'll save $4.20 from the newsstand price and you'll: • Never miss an issue
- Not have to go out in bad weather to get your paper

"And if you subscribe now, you'll get 4 Bonus Weeks free!"

Please s	start my subscription to The	e Dallas Post.
In Lackawanna And Wyoming Counties: Other PA, N.Y. and N.J. areas: All Other States: Name	One Year- $14.00	Two Years- $26.00
Mailing Adress
City
If a gift, from whom		Zip
Address	City Sta	ate Zip
Please enclose payment		Post

Joan Titus, R.N.

Titus named head nurse

Joan Titus, R.N., C.P.Q.A., was recently appointed head nurse of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's Intermediate Care Unit.

A graduate of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's School of Nursing, Titus is pursuing a bachelor of science degree in Healthcare Management at King's College, Wilkes-Barre. She is certified in Quality Assurance, a member of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Association of Quality Assurance Professionals.

An employee of the hospital for eight years, Titus resides in Shavertown with her husband, Dale.

Dr. John Tomedi elected officer of General's medical staff

Wilkes-Barre General Hospital's medical staff recently elected new officers to head more than 300 physicians on the hospital staff.

Nicholas J. Ruggiero, M.D., was elected president and Alfred F. D'Anca, M.D., was named president-elect. John G. Citti, M.D., was elected treasurer, Melita M. Konecke, M.D., was elected secretary and John R. Tomedi, M.D., was elected assistant secretary. Each will serve a two-year term of office.

Dr. Tomedi is a graduate of Penn State University and Temple University Medical School. He is a practicing family physician at General Hospital and with Dr. Gary Smith at Back Mountain Family Practice, Dallas. He resides in

John R. Tomedi, M.D.

