Eric Supey chosen Student Marshall

Eric R. Supey, a Penn State senior from Trucksville majoring in environmental resource management, has been selected as the student marshal for the College of Agriculture commencement this spring. The ceremony will be held Saturday, May 13, at 9 a.m. in Eisenhower Auditorium.

Supey was chosen as marshal in recognition of his outstanding academic performance. He will lead the procession of graduating seniors at the commencement.

Supey has been awarded numerous scholarships through the College Scholarships and Awards Program. He received a College of Agriculture Memorial Scholarship, a Dreibelbis Memorial Scholarship, a Kunkle Memorial Scholarship, an Eva B. and G. Weidman Groff Memorial Scholarship, a J. Lin Huber Memorial Scholarship, an N.C. Harris Memorial Scholarship and a Penn State University Freshman Scholarship. Supey is a member of the Gamma Sigma Delta honor society and Who's Who in American Junior Colleges. He has been on the dean's list every semester since entering Penn State.

Prior to coming to University Park, Supey attended Penn State's Wilkes-Barre Campus. He is the son of June Supey of Trucksville and Robert Supey of Lehman.

John F. Speer Jr., past president of the Milk Industry Foundation and the International Ice Cream Association, will give the commencement address.

Staff Writer

Michael Dzanko, senior at Dallas Senior High School, has accepted a four-year academic scholarship at Juniata College, Huntingdon, Pennsylvania. He was also awarded a four-week summer tour of Europe in which he and other students will participate in a Scholars' Abroad Seminar.

The tour will be supervised by members of Juniata's faculty and will provide an educational and enriching experience for the students. It also enables the students to earn college credits while touring England, Holland, France and Belgium.

An honor student at Dallas High School, Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dzanko, Shavertown. He has been a member of the Gifted Program, JETS Team, Forensic Team, Senior Steering Committee, section editor for the school newspaper and an actor in the school's drama presentations.

Michael also was a member of the high school cross-country team and the varsity tennis team.

He plans to pursue a career in the bio-chemistry field, going into research while at Juniata. He also plans to try out for the college cross country team.
