Knight Denise Davis went 3-for-4 at the plate and gave up only one hit in the girls softball game with Seton Catholic, as the Lake-Lehman girls went on to defeat the Eagles 12-2 in a game that ended in the fifth inning under the 10-run rule.

Wendy Skibitsky and Stacie Newell were also powerful at the plate, each going 3-for-4 with Skibitsky knocking out a double and a homerun and Newell driving in the game-ending run. Renae Dymond also drove out a double and one of Davis' hits was a double. Davis fanned seven and walked two.

The win moved the Lady Knights record to 8-1 in Division AA.

Earlier in the week the Lady Knights shut out Northwest 14-0 in a five-inning game behind Davis' two-hit pitching. She struck out two and allowed no walks in picking up the win.

Christy Taylor led the Lady Knights 10-hit attack on Northwest knocking out a single and a double. Newell doubled for the Knights and Karen White picked up two RBI's on a sacrifice in the Knights five-run inning.

Dallas netmen finish season with 8-2 record

The Dallas girls softball team shut out Valley West 14-0 Wednesday paced by Patti Reed's three-run triple slammed into the outfield in the five-run second inning and Laura Poynton's two-hit pitching. Poynton also knocked out two singles, one of them in the eighth third inning. Poynton also knocked out two singles, one of them in the eighth third inning. Poynton also struck out five and walked only one. Tracy Hunter and Lynn Bednar drove out doubles to aid in the Dallas win. The game ended in the fourth inning under the 10-run rule.

Dallas came from behind in Tuesday's game with Tunkhannock to win 8-3 behind Melanie Langdon's 2-for-3 at the plate, Patti Reed's key double and Sue Wells 2-for-4.

The Tigers jumped out to a 3-1 lead in the top of the third on three unearned runs.

Dallas came back in the bottom of the fourth inning when Langdon hit an RBI single, then scored on a passed ball, to tie the score at 3-3. The Lady Mountaineers went in front 5-2 in the fifth inning when Wendy Hozempa and Lynn Bednar singled to get on base.

Tracy Hunter knocked in the winning run with a single and Patti Reed drove out a double to send in the insurance run. The Mountaineers iced the game in the bottom of the sixth with three more runs while Poynton kept the Tigers from scoring, striking out three and walking only one. Sue Wells was the power hitter in the sixth inning to aid in driving in runs.

Dallas beats Crestwood, Wyoming Area

Crestwood went into the top of the ninth inning with a 4-2 lead over the Dallas Mountaineers last week, but the Dallas boys fought back to take the Comets 5-4 in the extra innings game.

Eric Paczewski singled in the bottom of the ninth with two out and scored when Brett Weyman drove a long double to right centerfield. John Masley hit a grounder to second but the throw to first was high and Weyman scored while Masley went to second. With the score tied at 4-4, first baseman Alex Case came up and singled to

Bob Ashworth pitched all the way for Dallas, striking out 10 and walking only one. Matt Burke pitched eight innings for the Comets, striking out eight but walking six. He didn't give up a hit until the sixth inning but allowed six in the remaining innings.

The Mountaineers defeated Wyoming Area 4-3 in last Tuesday's game with Randy Coolbaugh pitching out of trouble in the sixth inning when the Warriors scored all of their runs. With two out and the tying run in scoring position, Coolbaugh made J. Pascoe fly out to centerfield to end the game.

Jeff Tinner started the scoring for Dallas in the fourth inning with a one-out triple and came home on Matt Butler's single. Paczewski went to first when he was hit by a pitched ball and Brett Weyman loaded the bases with an infield single. John Masley dropped a suicide squeeze bunt single that scored Butler and Paczewski scored when the ball was thrown away. Case hit a successful two-strike suicide squeeze bunt to score Weyman with the winning run.

Randy Coolbaugh picked up the win striking out four and walking one.

14 hit attack paces Knights' win over Seton

Coach Dwight Barbacci's Lake-Lehman boys baseball team defeated Seton Catholic 10-2 Thursday but lost a heartbreaker 3-2 to Bishop Hoban Wednesday due to the pitching of Bill Shirk a former classmate who transferred to Bishop Hoban in his freshman year.

Shirk gave up only four hits to the Knights and struck out one while walking six. The Knights had an opportunity to go ahead in the seventh when with two out, they loaded the bases. Jim Chamberlain started the seventh with a walk but was forced out at second on Todd Sallo's fielder's choice. Sallo went to second on Shirk's wild pitch but Rob Michael's was out on a fly to the outfield. Chris Engle drew an intentional walk from Shirk then Keith Schultz walked to load the bases. Shirk stayed cool and pitched to Rob James who grounded out to the third baseman to end the 3-2 game.

The Knights inability to hit played a key role in their loss.

The Knights rebounded in Thursday's game with Seton Catholic hammering them 10-2 behind Sam Gorgone and Rob Michaels pitching. Gorgone earned the win pitching five innings striking out five, walking three and allowing five hits. Michaels pitched two innings striking out three, walking two and allowing only one hit.

Michaels also went 4-for-4 at the plate to lead the Knights 14-hit attack. The Knights are 6-2 in the AA North Division, one game behind Bishop Hoban, the team to whom they lost both of their games.

Black Knight volleyball seeded third

Coach John Baranowski's boys volleyball team clinched third seed in the District 2 playoffs last Thursday by defeating North Pocono 2-1 in the Wyoming Valley Volleyball Conference. The Knights, who are 10-2 will meet Coughlin, No. 2 seed in the first round of the district playoffs this Thursday. North Pocono will meet No. 1 seed Tunkhannock, 12-0.

In the Thursday meet, North Pocono took the first set 15-10 but the Knights came back strong to take the next two 15-7 and 15-8. Mike Taylor played an outstanding game for the Knights and Dave Callahan had 12 service points and gave the Knights some strong setting. John Baranowski, Jr. led in the hitting and good blocking was done by Matt Kukosky and Ben Haughney. Jason Turner played strong defense for the Knights.

The Knights defeated Abington Heights, last Tuesday, 2-0 behind the strong hitting of Baranowski, Jr. and Mark Parascik, 15-2 and 15-8. Mark Stroud played outstanding defense for the Knights.
