Heiser to exhibit at United Penn

A collection of drawings and paintings by Richard C. Heiser is currently on exhibit at United Penn Bank, Main Street, Dallas.

Heiser works in a variety of media including pen and ink and watercolor. He began seriously studying art only a short two years ago. This is his second solo show. He has exhibited in the Annual Lititz Outdoor Show and locally in the Tunkhannock Art & Antique Auction and Luzerne County Fall Fair as well. Heiser has participated in workshops with nationally renowned artists Doug Wiltrout and Nita Engle, and studies with Sue Hand at the Imagery in Dallas.

Heiser resides in Sweet Valley and is married to the former Judy Cooper. They have three children, Erin, Ryan and Courtney.

The public is invited to view the exhibit of his works which will be on display in the lobby of the United Penn Bank through May.

Fine Arts Fiesta May 18-21

Wilkes-Barre's Public Square will come alive Thursday, May 18 with the opening of the 34th annual Fine Arts Fiesta.

The Fiesta, founded in 1956 by the late Annette Evans, was Pennsylvania's first full scale arts festival and continues to be a highlight in Northeastern Pennsylvania. From its inception, the Fine Arts Fiesta has depended upon volunteers to plan, produce and staff the city's yearly tribute to the arts. Now, after over 30 years, the Fiesta continues to offer, free to the public, professional and amateur exhibitions, crafts-in-action and performances under an open sky.

This year's fiesta theme is "Arts Alive" and it will include eight art exhibitions, 35 juried artist/craftsmen exhibitors, children's features and a full schedule of children's performances will be held.

Many community art groups will participate in this year's fiesta including the Wyoming Valley Art League, Wilkes College Art Dept., Wyoming Valley Poetry Society, Wyoming Valley Chapter, Embroiderers' Guild of America and the Wyoming Valley Camera Club. The Festival performances in the band shell will include a variety of classical, jazz, folk, ethnic, opera and dance for a full variety and scope of talent offerings.

Thursday's entertainment in the band shell includes Wyoming Valley Band, Just Visiting vocal duo and Bobby Baird's Dixieland Jazz Band.

On Friday, the Back Mountain String Band will present a lunchtime concert. Franklin Brass Ensemble, Little Theatre and the Wilkes College Jazz Band are among the groups to perform.

Saturday's entertainment schedule includes the St. David's Male Choir of Scranton, Joe Sabol Orchestra and Jonathan Edwards in Concert.

On Sunday, Kapleye in Concert, Sinfonia de Camera and Lee Vincent's Salute to the Big Bands will help to make the closing day spectacular.

Fiesta hours are: Thursday, May 18, 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.; Friday, May 19, 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.; Saturday, May 20, 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. and Sunday, May 21, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. More information on Wilkes-Barre's Fine Arts Fiesta can be obtained by writing to Fine Arts Fiesta, P.O. Box 2053, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18703 or by calling (717) 825-0527.

Annual plant and book show at Oldest House offers activities, shows and sales

The annual Plant and Book Show and Sale will be the first event of the season at The Oldest House, East Main Street, Laceyville, Pa., Saturday, May 20 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. It is sponsored by the Laceyville Area Oldest House Historical Society. Bedding, garden, and houseplants will be sold and there will be several tables of good books, paperbacks and hard cover editions; bundles of good magazines; records and other items offered at nominal prices.

A highlight of the day will be a father-daughter team who will show a display of country style wooden items plus other crafts including Scherenschnitte art of old German papercutting, soft sculpture pieces and counted cross stitch crafting, by Mrs. Betty Clark and her father Joseph Bonavita.

Hostesses from the Historical Society will serve lunches all day in the diningroom of the house.
