Knights take four to stay in contention

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

Coach Dwight Barbacci's Black Knights added four wins to their record last week to stay hot on the heels of first place Bishop Hoban in front by one game. The Knights shut out Bishop O'Reilly Saturday in a five-inning 18-0 game, took Northwest 10-6 Friday, blanked GAR 5-0 Thursday and shut out Hanover 6-0 Wednesday at home.

In Saturday's game at the Queensmen's field, pitchers Todd Sallo and Sam Gorgone combined for a no-hitter while their teammates collected 16 hits and 18 runs off four hurlers.

Rob Michaels went 4-for-4 at the plate and accounted for five runs while smashing out a hard triple for some of the runs. Schultz went 4-for-5 at the plate knocking out two doubles. Chris Engle, M. Strutko and Jim Chamberlain also drove out doubles for the Knights.

Sallo who picked up the win struck out six and walked only three in four innings. Sam Gorgone came in to pitch the fifth inning and struck out two giving up no walks nor hits.

In Friday's game with Northwest, the Knights powerful offense picked up 12 hits five of them for extra bases including three homers as they moved to within one game of Hoban who was idle in the North AA.

Engle picked up the 10-6 win for the Knights and aided his own cause by driving out two homers, one of them three-run shot in the first as he drove in four runs. Engle pitched six innings striking out seven, walking one and giving up only four hits. The score was 10-1 when he was relieved by Gorgone who pitched one inning before he was relieved by Todd Sallo.

Engle came back in the seventh to finish the inning when the Rangers scored four run. He stopped the rally by picking up the final out of the game.

Rich Hynick, Michaels, drove out for the Knights.

The Knights picked up a 5-0 shutout over GAR Thursday on their home field behind Keith Schultz's three-hitter and led by Troy Strauser's three-run homer in the third inning. Schultz struck out nine and walked four in the seven innings.

Todd Sallo and Chris Engle shared the mound duty in Wednesday's game with Hanover and between them allowed only three hits as they shut out the Hawkeyes 6-0. J.J. Konigus aided in the win with three hits, one of them a double.

Sallo pitched five innings striking out seven and walking three while giving up two hits and Engle struck out four and walked two while giving up only one hit in two innings.

The Knights went in front in the second inning and never dropped back.

Dallas girls tie for title with 14-11 win

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

Dallas softball girls ended the season in a two way tie with Pittston by defeating Nanticoke 14-11 in a unique high-scoring game Monday, while the Patriettes were defeating Hazleton 9-1.

The loss dropped Nanticoke from the playoffs when Coughlin defeated Tunkhannock 7-6.

The high score was produced by walks as the Dallas-Nanticoke teams had 21 walks between them.

Laura Poynton and Tracy Hunter took turns on the mound with Poynton picking up the win. She struck out one and walked eight. Hunter came in to relieve Poynton and struck out one and also walked eight. Poynton returned to the mound to finish the game in the final inning.

Dallas and Pittston will meet at Kirby Park Wednesday at 1 p.m., in a playoff to decide the title in the North AAA Division. Winner of that game will advance to the playoff against Coughlin to decide the WVC title.

LAKE-LEHMAN GIRLS WIN 13-0 OVER MEYERS

Lake-Lehman girls shut out Seton Catholic 13-0 to get set for their final game with Meyers scheduled for yesterday (Tuesday) when they meet Meyers at Miners Park. The Knights need to defeat the Mohawks to set up a playoff for the AA Division title.

DALLAS BASEBALL CLINCHES TITLE

The Dallas Mountaineers clinched the Division AAA baseball title Monday behind pitcher Randy Coolbaugh who hurled a one-hitter to defeat Hazleton 1-0. Coolbaugh also struck out 12 men at the plate.

The win gave the Mountaineers their first division title under Coach Jack Wolensky and the first since 1977.

KNIGHTS WIN 14-0, AWAIT PLAYOFFS

Lake-Lehman boys shut out Seton Catholic 14-0 Monday and have one game remaining on their schedule, with West Side Tech. Their hope for the playoffs depends on Bishop Hoban losing to GAR in their game which was set for Tuesday. The Argents are 13-1 after their win over Bishop O'Reilly Monday while the Knights are 12-2, both losses to Bishop Hoban.

Winning streak captures first place for Dallas girls

After defeating Pittston Area 8-3 last Monday, the Dallas girls continued to win during the week to move into first place after Friday's game with Coughlin.

In a game that went eight innings, Randi Harvey came through with a two-run single to give the Mountaineers a 4-3 win over Coughlin, to give them a 13-2 record and possession of first place in the AAA Division North.

Harvey's hit scored Melanie Langdon and Julianne Orlowski to break the tie.

Laura Poynton coming back after a concussion suffered in the Hanover game Wednesday, hurled a three-hitter but worked herself out of trouble in the eighth inning to save the win. Coughlin scored one run in the bottom of the eighth on an error and had two runners on base with two out when Poynton got DeGiusto out on a deep fly to left field.

HoAly Bachman, Molly Connolly, Wendy Hozempa, Patty Reed and Sue Wells also had hits for the Lady Mountaineers.

The Lady Mountaineers defeated Tunkhannock 12-5 Thursday behind the pitching of Tracy Hunter in her first mound start. Hunter tossed a six-hitter, struck out two and walked only four in the game.

She usually plays centerfield for the Mountaineers but pitched in place of Poynton who was injured in the Hanover game when she suffered a concussion when sliding into home plate and her helmet started coming off her head. The Hanover catcher's tag caught Poynton on the back of her head and put her out cold for about five minutes. Hunter came into that game and gave up only one hit in the final five innings.

In the game with the Tigers, Hunter had outstanding defense from right fielder Wendy Hozempa, left fielder Sue Wells and third baseman Randi Harvey. Hunter had 3-for-4 at the plate with two RBIs. Langdon and Reed had three-run triples and Wells added two key hits to the Dallas rally in the nine-run second inning.

Dallas shut out Hanover 9-0 in Wednesday's game at the Back Mountain field led by Juli Orlowski's two-run single and Sue Wells RBI triple. Molly Connolly added a double.

Poynton pitched the first two innings giving up one hit, striking out one and walking one before she was injured and Hunter came in to finish the game. Hunter struck out five and gave up only one hit in the five innings she pitched.

Dallas was scheduled to play Nanticoke Monday and if they win, the Mountaineers will have to play Pittston again, who moved into a tie with Dallas by defeating the Trojans Saturday.

Dallas baseball's win puts them in tie for first place

Coach Jack Wolensky's boys baseball team moved into a two-way tie for first with Tunkhannock Friday in the AAA West by defeating Pittston Area 5-3.

Dallas' Bob Ashworth hurled a six hitter and went three-for-four at the plate to lead his team in the win.

The Mountaineers scored four runs in the second inning and a fifth in the fourth to outdo the Patriots.

Matt Butler went to first on a walk then scored on a squeeze bunt by John Masley. Ray Russin singled home Alex Case, then stole second and came home on a hit by Brett Weyman. Weyman scored later on an error.

In the fifth inning Pittston scored two runs but their attempt to come back was stopped when Dallas catcher Neil Kaiser made an outstanding defensive play.

Ashworth struck out five and walked three while picking up his fourth win of the season.

Earlier in the week, the Mountaineers went into the seventh inning with Valley West in front 5-4 and their pitcher Cywinski on the mound.

Toney came in to relieve Cywinski who had loaded the bases when Tony Suggs, Dallas second baseman came up to the plate.

Ray Russin started the seventh with a walk and stole second. Weyman hit a sacrifice bunt and Russin scored on the throw to first to tie the score. Harry Schweppenheiser came in to run for Weyman. Catcher Bob Ashworth was walked by the Spartan pitcher then Tinner hit a fielder's choice to put men on first and third. Eric Paczewski drew a walk then Matt Butler hit to the shortstop and Schweppenheiser was thrown out at home.
