possible resolution to the problem. "There is recreation grant money available if you own the beach," Boice explained, "but we lease it."

The beach is owned by the Sunset Beach Association and Joe Paglianite, who also owns Joe's Grotto. If the owners sign the beach over to the borough, recreation grant applications could be submitted.

Boice said that he mentioned the option to the owners. He said that Paglianite agreed to sign over the beach at the time it was leased. No response has been received from the beach association. Paglianite was unavailable for comment.

"The beach will not be opened this year," Boice said claiming that there is no money and no time to obtain funds.

Douglas Samuels, 55, Plains, was fishing near the beach Sunday morning. "It is a shame the

* Approximate

Salaries for the regular elementary and secondary programs and special programs such as tuition to special schools, special education, etc., items similar to the Dallas budget since the forms are standard for public school districts, amount to approximately $4,386,577 or 41.3 percent. Vocational education and related services plus other special programs such as homebound and driver's education totals $1,189,842 or 11.2 percent.

Support services for instruction such as field trips, conferences, audio-visual, education TV, necessary equipment and supplies totals $1,310,963 or 12.3 percent. In this total is included the library and various other items necessary for the children's education in elementary and secondary education, and all administrative salaries and costs.

Pupil health and business services plus related services including non-professional employees amount to $311,963 or about 2.9 percent.

The operation and maintenance of all school facilities amounts to $911,890 or 8.5 percent and the transportation services total approximately $770,130 or 7.2 percent.

Central services including other support services such as non-professional employees, bank accounts, postage, bank charges, and other supplies and equipment totals $86,361 or less than one percent.

Debt service of the district amounts to $804,514 or 7.5 percent and fund transfers account totals approximately $99,183 or approximately one percent.

The amount of optional funds for all student activities amounts to approximately $267,659 or about 2.5 percent of the total budget.

The budgetary reserve is approximately $58,400 or about one half of one percent of the budget.

This includes the items in the proposed Lake-Lehman budget for 1989-1990 although board members say they are continuing to look for ways to reduce the millage if possible.
