SISTER MARY ELOISE MCGINTY, R.S.M.

Sister Mary Eloise McGinty of College Misericordia died at McCann Hall, Dallas, on Tuesday, July 4, 1989.

Born Feb. 6, 1912, she was the daughter of the late Patrick and Mary Dowling McGinty of Sugar Notch. Educated in the public schools of Sugar Notch and St. Mary's High Schools of Wilkes-Barre, Sister entered the Sisters of Mercy in 1931 and was professed in August 1933. She received the B.S. degree in Secretarial Science from College Misericordia. She did graduate study at Fordham University, earning an M.S. in Education.

While Sister taught a few years on the elementary level, most of her teaching career was spent on the college campus. She taught one year at Mt. Aloysius Jr. College in Cresson, Pennsylvania and the remaining years in Dallas. She was Chairperson of the Business Department and for many years, secretary to the Academic Deans of College Misericordia. In 1966 she became Registrar of the College, a post she held until her recent retirement.

Maintaining a great interest in athletic activities, she was long-time Moderator of the Athletic Association of the College, McGinty Gym was named in her honor.

Throughout the years she was very active in alumni affairs. In 1983 the Directors of College Misericordia Alumni Association presented her with The Hilda Staub Garey Award for outstanding service and commitment to the Alumni Association. Many remember her as a primary fund-raiser among alumni during the Annual Phonathon.

In 1987 the Board of Trustees of College Misericordia awarded her the Catherine McAuley Medal "in recognition of a lifetime of compassionate service."

Surviving her are a brother, Joseph, of Edison, N. J.; sisters, Anna McGinty and Mary Ryan of Brooklyn; Margaret Wotman, Lakehurst, N.J.; many nieces and nephews.

Interment was in the Sisters of Mercy plot in St. Mary's Cemetery, Hanover Township.

Police report

DALLAS BOROUGH 309 ACCIDENT PROVES FATAL FOR DRIVER

Dallas Borough Patrolman Charles Rauschkab reported that on July 2 a vehicle driven by Mazie Mazar of Bennett Street, Luzerne, traveling north on Route 309 tried to make a left turn onto Main Street and collided with a car driven by Christine M. Downs, RD 2, Hunklock Creek.

Downs said she was traveling south on Route 309 in the left hand passing lane.

Mazar was charged with violation of required position and method of turning.

Word was received July 9 that Mazie Mazar died in the Nesbitt Hospital where she was admitted following the accident.

CHARGED WITH RECKLESS DRIVING

Patrolman Charles Rauschkab investigated an accident on July 2 on Route 309 near Dorchester Drive in which he reported that a car driven by Lori Ann Smith of Kingston, was struck by one driven by Scott Adams.

Adams was cited for reckless driving and entering or crossing a road.

DRUGS TAKEN IN BREAK-IN AT OFFICE

Chief John Fowler investigated a burglary, June 30 at the Dallas Family Practice in which someone made entry by throwing a garbage can cover through a window and unlocking a door. They apparently went to the drug cabinet and forced open the door and removed various kinds of narcotics. Investigation is continuing.

YOUTH SERIOUS AFTER DALLAS ACCIDENT

Patrolman James J. Martin on July 8 was dispatched to an accident at Route 415 and Church Street in which he reported that Carl Rosencrans III of West Pittston, driving a 1986 Ford station wagon at excessive speed, lost control of the car, which struck curbing causing the tires to flatten and the car to become airborne and travel along a concrete sidewalk and grass to the intersection of Route 415 and Church Street where it hit a light standard for a crosswalk and came to rest. Rosencrans was taken by ambulance to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital where he was admitted and is still in serious condition.

DALLAS TOWNSHIP DUI CHARGED

Dallas Township Patrolman Wayman Miers on July 3 investigated an accident on Sedler Lane in which Richard Bevan of Plymouth said a deer ran in front of his car and when he swerved to miss the deer, he went over an embankment and plunged 10 feet into the grapevines. Bevans was charged with driving under the influence.

KINGSTON TOWNSHIP CAR, CYCLE ACCIDENT

Kingston Township Patrolmen Frank Ziegler and Robert Parrish were dispatched to the scene of an accident at West Center Street, Shavertown in which they reported that Christine Ouelette, Shavertown, in a 1988 Buick, was traveling east on West Center Street and said she didn't see Daniel Major of Jackson Road, Shavertown, driving a 1984 Yamaha going west on West Center.

A passenger, Brenda Sickler, on the Yamaha was injured. Ouelette was charged with failing to yield the right of way.

Major and Sickler were admitted to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital for treatment.

VANDALISM STRIKE VALLEY TENNIS CLUB

The maintenance superintendent at Valley Tennis and Swim Club, Kingston Township on July 7 reported sometime between 10 p.m. and midnight, July 7, someone used a vehicle and a chain or cable to knock down two light standards, then entered the pool area and knocked over several fence posts, tore a water fountain from its mounting outside the clubhouse, broke a light on a utility pole and threw garbage cans, chairs, picnic tables and stones into the swimming pool. "Slayer Rules" was written in chalk by the pool.
