Ann Jordan given Rotary award for community activities

Mrs. Ann Jordan was recently awarded the Paul Harris Fellowship Award by the Dallas Rotary Club for outstanding community activity and participation in keeping with the principles of Rotary. Mrs. Jordan is the first woman and non-member of Rotary to receive this award by the Dallas Rotary Club, with her husband, Dr. L.E. Jordan, being the first member of the Dallas Rotary Club to receive the award.

Some of Mrs. Jordan's achievement over the year have included: Grand Regent of Catholic Daughters, St. Therese's Church, Shavertown, where she served for two years; twice Past-President of the Dallas Senior Women's Club where she served for 35 years; Advisor to Dallas Junior Women's Club; Past-President of Dallas Rotary Ann's where she served for 41 years; Chairperson of the refreshment stand and bake booth at the Dallas Library Auction, having volunteered her services for 32 years; Volunteer at the Luzerne County Fall Fair for the past 23 years; Secretary of the Dallas Rotary Student Exchange Program for seven years, serving with her husband who was chairperson and founder of the Exchange Program. Mrs. Jordan has attended meetings and visited 29 Rotary Districts. She has attended nine Rotary conventions in four different countries. She has also been Secretary and Past President of the Dental Auxiliary of Luzerne County and had been a member of the auxiliary for 38 years.

Attending the award ceremony were her children and grandchildren. Her children are, Mrs. Lynne Horoschak, Dresher, Pa.; Mrs. Peggy Harvey, Dallas; Mrs. Jeri Baranowski, Orange; Mrs. Cory Ryan, Richmond, Va. and Paul Jordan, Hershey. Mrs. Jordan resides with her husband in Trucksville.

Volunteer of the month

Toni Lukasavage, 13, of Noxen, was recently selected as Wilkes-Barre General Hospital's Junior Volunteer of the Month. The daughter of Frank and Lillian Lukasavage, she volunteered 33 hours of in-hospital service, including work on the hospitality cart.

In recognition of her honor, Lukasavage received two $5 gift certificates to area Pizza Hut Restaurants, and her photograph will appear in the Pizza Hut closest to her home. A letter of recognition will also be sent to her parents and to her junior high school principal. She is a student at Lake-Lehman Junior High School. Shown standing, Toni Lukasavage. Seated, Karen Denman.

In our service

Sgt. Michael S. Newell recently participated in the Strategic Air Command exercise, "Global Shield '89."

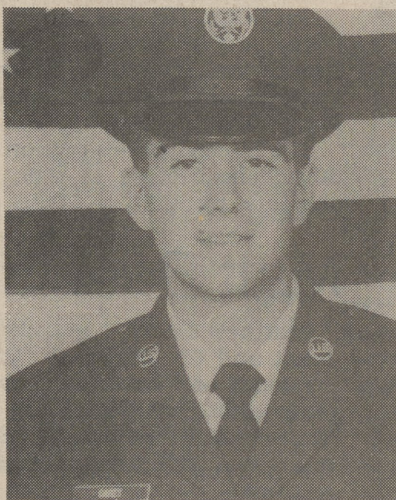

The exercise tested the readiness of SAC units around the world, as well as Air Force reserve and Air National Guard units, to carry out orders which support the United States national policy.

Newell is an area supervisor with the 9th Security Police Squadron, Beale Air Force Base, Calif.

He is the son of Harold R. and Janice L. Newell of 64 Pinecrest Ave., Dallas.

His wife, Jody, is the daughter of Jacob and Paulette Dvorak of 5204 Belmont Road, Grand Forks, N.D.

The sergeant is a 1983 graduate of Dallas Senior High School.

James C. Carey

Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class John M. Westfield, son of Rev. and Mrs. Henry E. Westfield of 90 Claude St., Dallas, was graduated from Field Medical Service School.

During the five-week course at Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, N.C., Westfield was prepared for duty with Marine Corps combat units as a naval hospital corpsman and dental technician. Westfield studied the fundamentals of battlefield survival, personal protective measures, and received instructions on basic tactics and the use of weapons for self-defense.

To graduate, he was required to demonstrate basic proficiency in emergency medical techniques, casualty evacuation, field sanitation and preventive medicine procedures.

A 1986 graduate of Dallas Senior High School, he joined the Navy in June 1986.

Susan E. Dodson has been commissioned a second lieutenant through the Air Force ROTC program, and earned a bachelor's degree from King's College, Wilkes-Barre.

Dodson is the daughter of Ruth E. and Charles L. Dodson of RD 3, Sweet Valley.

The lieutenant is a 1985 graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, Lehman.

Airman James C. Carey has graduated from Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

During the six weeks of training the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the community college of the Air Force.

Carey is the son of Dianne F. Graham and stepson of John J. Graham of RD 1, Dallas.

He is a 1988 graduate of Dallas Senior High School.

Army Reserve Private 1st Class Elizabeth F. Gush has completed the Army personnel administration specialist course at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

The course was designed to provide students a working knowledge of unit administration duties including files and publications, correspondence procedures, unit personnel actions, and basic typing skills.

Gush is the daughter of Carl G. Gush of 29 Pellam Terrace, Dallas, and Odetta F. Gush of RD 1, Harveys Lake.

She is a 1986 graduate of Bishop O'Reilly High School, Kingston.
