The annual Vacation Bible School of Carverton United Methodist Church was held at the Mt. Zion United Methodist Church in Exeter Township recently. This year 127 students from nursery through 8th grade participated with a staff of 33 adults. The theme was "Sonseeker Safari" and it was based on The Lord's Prayer. The culmination of the students' efforts was seen in a Friday night program and musical. After the musical they all took part in a Safari Carnival with food and games. Over 300 parents and friends came out to support the closing program. Reverend Robb Henderson, Pastor, was VBS director this year.

This flag was a bargain

Commonwealth Telephone Company recently made a donation to the Greater Wilkes-Barre Triathlon Committee. The triathlon, sponsored by The Times Leader and Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, is an annual event held during Labor Day weekend. The endurance race consists of a 1.5-kilometer swim at Harveys Lake, a 40-kilometer bicycle race from Harveys Lake through the Back Mountain to College Misericordia and a 10-kilometer run which starts and finishes at College Misericordia. This year, participants will vie for prizes totaling $30,000.

He stressed, however, that the present communication center is "a system we should be proud of."

One problem that has been associated with '911' systems in the past results from their large coverage area. Sometimes, '911' systems contact the wrong emergency services because of similar or duplicate names. For example, there are several Jackson Townships in Pennsylvania.

"There should not be a problem with wrong companies being called because the system would be centrally located with a computer servicing just the Back Mountain area," according to Dallas Borough Police Chief John R. Fowler. "'911' would be a good service to get. Response would be faster."

Miers added that obtaining a county-wide '911' system would have to be a community effort. "'911' is definitely needed. All the emergency services must stick together and push for it," he said. "Also, the community must push, because both versions (of the '911' bills) require a referendum vote by the people."

Miers said the referendum could be put before the people as early as next November's general elections.

Adopt-a-pet

This 11-month old beagle needs a name and a good home. A gentle dog who would make an excellent pet, he is looking for someone to love him and perhaps teach him to hunt a little. He may be nameless but he has had his shots.

Anyone interested in a good friend may find 'Nameless' at the SPCA, Main Street, Fox Hill, Wilkes-Barre. For more information call 825-4111.
