Back Mountain seniors plan dinner dance

The Back Mountain Senior Citizens Club, under Project HEAD, met recently with Vice President Bob Rogers, presiding.

Members worked on Arts and Crafts projects, including an afghan, which will be donated to the Project HEAD booth at the annual Folk Festival to be held in October at the Kingston Armory.

Reservations and payment are due by September 10 for the Annual Project HEAD Dinner Dance, September 22, at Genetti's, Wilkes-Barre.

The bus for the September 15 trip to Lancaster will leave at 8:30 a.m. from St. Therese's parking lot, Shavertown.

New members introduced were Audrey and Frank Billings, and Nancy Dombrowski.

A Halloween theme covered dish luncheon is being planned for October. Costumes optional.

The next meeting will be on Thursday, Sept. 7, 1:30 p.m., at St. Therese's Auditorium, Shavertown. The Kingston Citizens Choral Group will present a musical program.

Yoga exercises, led by Ann Balavage, will precede the meeting at 12 noon. Meetings are held on the first and third Thursdays of the month. New members are welcome.

Honored for service

Several Back Mountain residents were among those honored for five years of service to Ecumenical Enterprises, Inc. at their annual Employee Appreciation Social. Certificates of Appreciation and Savings Bonds were awarded to 19 employees. Ecumenical Enterprises, Inc. is a private, non-profit corporation with 165 employees that owns and manages The Meadows Nursing Center, Meadows and Hi-Meadows Apartments, Dallas and other facilities.
