Registration still open for Penn State evening classes

Over 30 evening classes and a variety of Saturday programs are being offered at Penn State Wilkes-Barre for the fall semester beginning August 24. Registration for weekend and evening classes is continuing through September 1 for evening and September 9 for weekend classes.

The fall semester will offer every course needed to obtain associate degrees in Business Administration; Letters, Arts, and Sciences; Electrical Engineering Technology and Telecommunications Technology in the evenings or weekends. Certificate programs are available in Administrative Secretaries, Business Management, Health Care Management, Marketing Management and Management Information Systems. A selection of credit-free certificate programs such as Purchasing Management, Production Management, Basic Electricity/Electronics and Paralegal will also be offered evenings and weekends.

Credit-free courses do not count toward degree requirements but offer growing experiences and job enhancement activities.

Interested persons may also register by attending the first scheduled day of classes. For more information call (717) 675-9238 or 1-800-426-2358.
