In our service

Army Sgt. 1st Class Kevin L. Krench has arrived for duty in West Germany.

The soldier is a platoon sergeant with the 26th Support Battalion.

Krench is the son of William and Mary Krench of 408 Walnut St., Luzerne.

His wife, Ann, is the daughter of William and Ann McHale of 134 Manor Drive, Shavertown.

In 1973 Krench graduated from Central Catholic High School, Kingston. He received an associate degree in 1980 from Grossmont College, El Cajon, California.

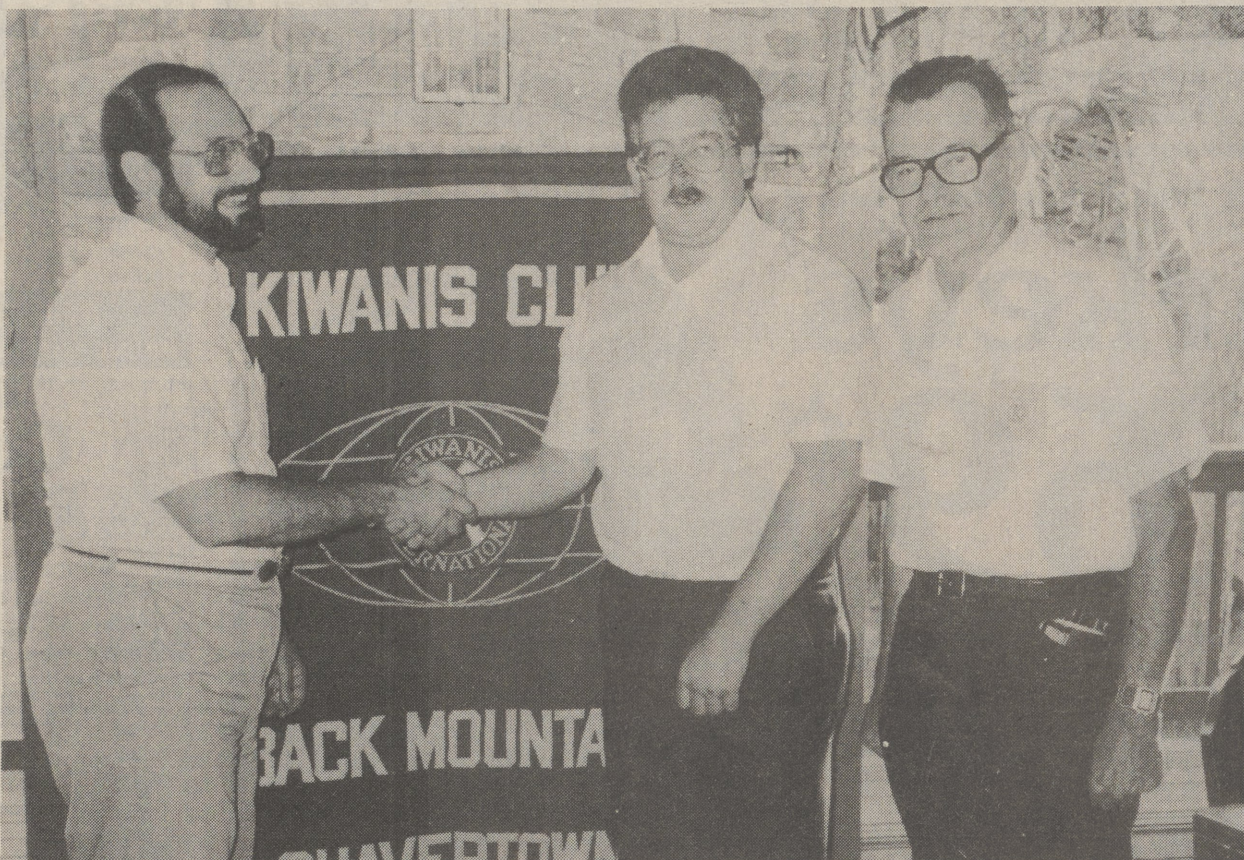

Mark J. Lubinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lubinski, of Poplar St., Dallas, enlisted in United States Air Force recently, according to Ssgt. Dave Filchak, Air Force recruiter for the Dallas area.

Upon successfully completing the Air Force's six week basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, mark will receive training in the Administrative Area. Mark is a 1989 graduate of Dallas High School.

Army National Guard Private Christian N. Darrow has completed basic training at Fort Polk, La.

During the training, students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

Darrow is the son of Beth A. and William R. Neal of Lehman.

New member of Back Mountain Kiwanis

Mr. George R. Gwilliam was accepted as a new member of the Back Mountain Kiwanis Club at a recent breakfast meeting at Pickett's Charge Restaurant, Dallas. Mr. Gwilliam is a resident of Harveys Lake and is a member of the City Council there. He will be formally inducted into the club during a future meeting. Shown in the photo are, from left, Ron Mosca, president; George Gwilliam and John Rogers, secretary.

Roderick named to national bank lending committee

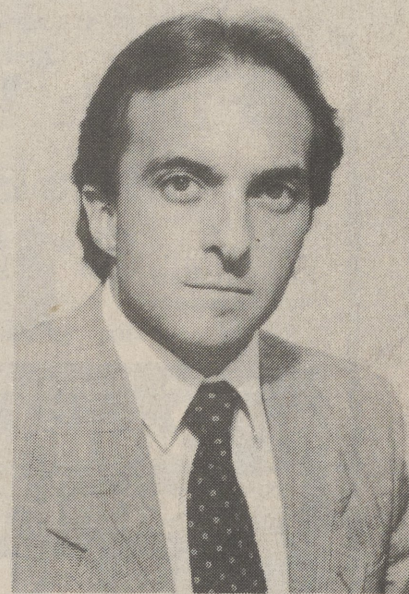

Robert A. Roderick has recently become one of 16 bankers from throughout the nation to be named to the Home Equity Lending Committee of the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA).

A senior vice president at First Eastern Bank, Roderick is in charge of retail lending, which includes residential mortgages, consumer installment loans, revolving credit and auto leasing.

The mission of the committee Roderick serves is to act as a spokesperson for the industry, coordinate lobbying positions and provide education for industry participants on a national scale. An additional role of the committee is to keep open the lines of communication for secondary markets for securities backed by these loans.

The committee also oversees production of the National Equity Lending Survey conducted by the Center for Financial Services Study at the McIntire School of Commerce at the University of Virginia.

The CBA's Home Equity Lending Committee meets three times yearly to monitor individual developments and develop positions on issues for the parent organization. Based in Alexandria, VA, the CBA is composed of representatives from retail banks, savings and loans and credit unions.

Robert A. Roderick

Roderick was graduated magna cum laude from King's College with a BS degree in Business Administration. He earned his MBA from Wilkes College and is a graduate of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association School of Banking at Bucknell University and the Stonier Graduate School of Banking.

A member of the First Eastern Staff since 1973, Roderick and his wife, Helen, and their two children reside in Dallas.
