Neither team scored in the first half but the Lady Mountaineers used their teamwork to play an aggressive second half and shut out the Blue Knights, with help from their goal keeper Molly Connolly.

Dallas now 4-0 after 21-6 win over Meyers

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

The Dallas Mountaineers defeated Meyers 21-6 Saturday afternoon on a sloppy wet turf at Meyers Stadium, but Dallas Coach Ted Jackson wasn't happy with his Mountaineers offense.

"It was a good win," Jackson said, "And we had two guys, Barry Miller and Tony Baldo, rushing over 100 yards each, but our offense had too many fumbles. Our defense played an excellent game. The offense had six turnovers which could have hurt us if we were playing a more powerful team on offense."

The Mountaineers played such strong defense that they stopped Meyers from making a first down until the closing minutes of the final quarter. The Mohawks made their first down on a pass from quarterback George Vitanovec to Jim Serafini.

The Mohawks were able to collect only 39 yards total offense in the game against the strong defensive players Tony Nadzan, Wayne Post and George Ladamus.

Meanwhile Barry Miller added up yards on the ground for more than 100 yards and scoring two touchdowns for the Mountaineers, one on a 52-yard run in the first quarter and the second on a 16-yard pass from quarterback Jay Straigis. Tony Baldo scored the third touchdown in the third quarter running the ball into the end zone from the two-yard line. Chris Williams continued his successful kicking to make the three points after touchdowns.

The Mohawks Mike Toney scored their only touchdown when he ran the ball over the goal line from the three-yard line. The try for two points failed for the Mohawks.

"We'll have to eliminate our mistakes if we want to defeat Crestwood next week. They're a well coached team and are good on offense and defense."
