Black Knights crush Hanover in final prep for Dallas game

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

The Lake-Lehman Knights made their fans and coaches happy last Saturday when they rolled over Hanover 37-8 at Hanover's field.

"We were pleased with the way the kids played," said Coach Rich Gorgone. "We knew they could do it and so did they. After the way they played against Meyers, they were ready."

"It was a great team effort on the part of the kids and Terry Martin did a great job. His blockers opened the holes for him and he took advantage of them. We threw the ball several times but our running game was doing so well, we stayed with it. Our kids did a great job today after the showing they had last week with Meyers."

Martin had 180 of the 331 yards the Knights totaled on offense, and he scored three touchdowns. The Knights took the opening kickoff and in 14 plays they went 77 yards. Martin had 43 of those yards and took the ball over for a touchdown.

In the second quarter Knight Mike Strutko intercepted a Hanover pass and again Martin carried the ball, this time for 51 yards and went over the two-yard line for a score and gave the Knights a 12-0 lead.

Hanover scored their points late in the first half when their quarterback Eric Pearson hit Jamie Proctor for a six yard touchdown, then hit John Heddings in the end zone for two points.

That was the end of the scoring for the Hawkeyes as the Black Knights defense closed in and allowed Hanover only one more first down.

In the second half the Knights added four touchdowns with Bill Vigorito going over from the three yard line to give the Knights a touchdown and P.J. Goodwin's kick for extra point was good to put the Knights in front 19-8.

In the third period Martin picked up his third touchdown when he ran up the middle for 13 yards to score a touchdown. The kick for the point failed and the Knights went in front 25-8.

A blocked punt by the Knights in the fourth quarter gave Strutko the ball which he carried over from the two yard line for a score and moved the score to 31-8. The try for the extra point failed.

With only 10 seconds left in the game, Vigorito took the ball and ran 59 yards to go into the end zone for the Knights final score which gave them the 37-8 win.

"We're off this week," Coach Gorgone said, "which is good. It gives the kids some time to get healthy. They have no serious injuries but some bruises. Then we have Nanticoke the following week."

Mainwaring elected to chair Wyoming Seminary board

Dr. Wallace F. Stettler, President of Wyoming Seminary, announced the recent election of William R. Mainwaring as Chairman of the school's Board of Trustees. Mainwaring assumed his post as Chairman, succeeding Dr. Joseph Bittenbender.

A graduate of Wilkes College, Mainwaring has been a member of the Board of Trustees for five years. He previously served as Treasurer, and was a member of the Board's Development, Finance and Investment, and Executive Committees. Mainwaring is President and Chief Executive Officer of First Eastern Bank, and serves on many local boards.

A past board member of the United Way of Wyoming Valley, he was the 1981 United Way Campaign General Chairman. Mainwaring is also associated with the Wilkes-Barre Industrial Fund, Economic Development Council of Northeastern Pennsylvania, Mercy Hospital, Mercy Med-Care, Inc., and Eastern Distribution Center, Inc. A member of the Board of Trustees of College Misericordia, Mainwaring is a member of the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus Advisory Board, treasurer and member of the Board of Trustees of the Wilkes-Barre family YMCA, Young Presidents Organization, committee member of the Penns Mountains Council of the Boys Scouts of America, and Past Chairman and board member of the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce.

Mainwaring and his wife Judy are the parents of two children, Jonnell and Robert, both graduates of Wyoming Seminary. They reside in Dallas.

Halloween safety tips offered

Kingston Township Police Chief Paul Sabol released the following Halloween safety tips for children.

- Wear light-colored clothing short enough to prevent tripping, and add reflectors.

- Make sure your children can see well through face masks.
- Accompany young children.

- Go out in daylight and carry a flashlight in case of delay.

- Stay within the neighborhood and only visit homes you know.

- Watch for traffic.
- Only give or accept wrapped or packaged candy.

- Examine candy before allowing children to eat it.

Lake-Lehman parents invited to annual meeting

Parents of children currently enrolled in Lake-Lehman's Chapter I Reading and/or Math Programs are cordially invited to the annual meeting for parents.

This meeting is scheduled for October 25, 1989, at 7 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Lehman-Jackson Elementary School.

This meeting provides an excellent opportunity to meet the Chapter I Reading and Math teachers and become familiar with the materials and instructional aids used by your child. Parents can also choose to help with the program by becoming a member of the Parents' Advisory Council.

Only by cooperating with each other will the best possible program be developed to help your child with reading and math difficulties. We welcome this opportunity to meet you. Refreshments will be served.

Lake-Lehman band wins field show competition

The Tournament of Bands in Carlisle was the stage for one of the most exciting field show competitions of the season. On Saturday evening high school bands from throughout central Pennsylvania challenged Lake-Lehman in field show competition.

Thirteen bands were scored on marching execution, music and general effect. When the judging was completed, Lehman outscored all bands in its division and won all of the specialty awards of high percussion, best band front and best music.

The Black Nights have won nine first place awards in field show competition this season.

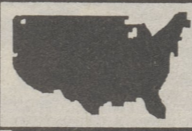

Next weekend the band travels to South Brunswick, New Jersey on Saturday and Sunday will be one of the 19 competing bands at the "Childrens Miracle March" competition at the Lackawanna County Multi-Purpose Stadium.
