SOCCER WINS TWICE

Ken Klimovitz continued his scoring last week scoring two goals in the Mountaineers 6-1 win over Wyoming Area Thursday and scoring one earlier in the week in the Mountaineers 4-1 win over Bishop O'Reilly. The soccer team went into this week Monday against Lake-Lehman.

Klimovitz and Eric Lehman each scored two goals in the Wyoming Area game while Pat Morris and Matt Sleightholm scored the other two goals for Dallas. Morris picked up the first goal on a penalty kick and Klimovitz scored the second goal off an assist from Darren Michaels. His next score was off an assist from Brian Miller. Lehman scored a goal off an assist by Michaels and his second one off an assist by John Masley.

In the game with Bishop O'Reilly, the Mountaineers took a 3-0 lead in the first period when Eric Ursiak, Klimovitz and Ed Reabuck knocked in the goals. Ursiak scored unassisted while Klimovitz scored with an assist by Michaels then aided Reabuck in his score with an assist. Reabuck scored his second goal off an assist by Jeff Tinner.

FIELD HOCKEY BOUNCES BACK FROM LOSS

After losing a hard-fought, well-played game 1-0 to Crestwood last Wednesday, Dallas girls field hockey team bounced back to shut out Meyers 6-0 Friday afternoon in Miner Park.

Becky Yurko scored two goals and Karen Wisnieski scored a goal and gave assists on two others to set the pace for Dallas. Renee Strauser put the Mountaineers in the lead early in the first period on a pass from Lorraine Mitchell. Wisnieski scored for Dallas to give them a 2-0 lead and Yurko scored her first goal unassisted to move the team to 3-0.

In the second half Nina Mathers scored off an assist by Wisnieski then Yurko scored with Wisnieski's assistance. Sue Richardson scored the final goal for Dallas unassisted.

In Wednesday's game with Crestwood, goalie Molly Connolly turned away shots from the Comets using just about every part of her body to keep them from scoring. While she was doing her utmost to save her teammates they were unable to put together a good offense to score at the other end of the field.

The Comets were able to put a score on the board when Sue Hudock scored the lone goal of the game off a penalty corner late in the first half, and the Comets held on to keep the lead despite the Dallas team playing aggressively the second half.

The win gave Crestwood sole possession of first place and in good position to take a second consecutive Wyoming Valley Conference. The loss dropped Dallas to 9-2. The Comets are scheduled to play Lake-Lehman today (Wednesday), the team who defeated Dallas earlier.

Knights Charlie Jacoby and Jim Hutchins came in first and second one second apart and Jason Yencha came in third for the Knights.
