Misericordia slates open house this Saturday

College Misericordia invites all college-bound students and their families to attend an Open House on Saturday, Nov. 11. All visitors will be encouraged to tour the campus, talk with college students and meet the admissions staff and professors.

The day's program includes registration and tours beginning at 10 a.m., discussions on financial aid, student services and activities and student government, lunch and optional interviews with admissions counselors. T-shirts will be given to all student guests.

Because reservations are limited, visitors are encouraged to sign up for the activities one week in advance. Call the Admissions office at 675-2181, ext. 264 during business hours.

College Misericordia is a four-year, coeducational Catholic college located on a 100-acre campus in Dallas. Founded in 1924 by the Religious Sisters of Mercy, Misericordia has established a 65-year tradition of excellence in education. The College is known for its commitment to the liberal arts, professional career training, and superior career placement record for Misericordia students.

Approximately 1,200 students attend Misericordia pursuing 17 bachelors degrees and four masters degrees on a full and part-time basis.
