

PEOPLE

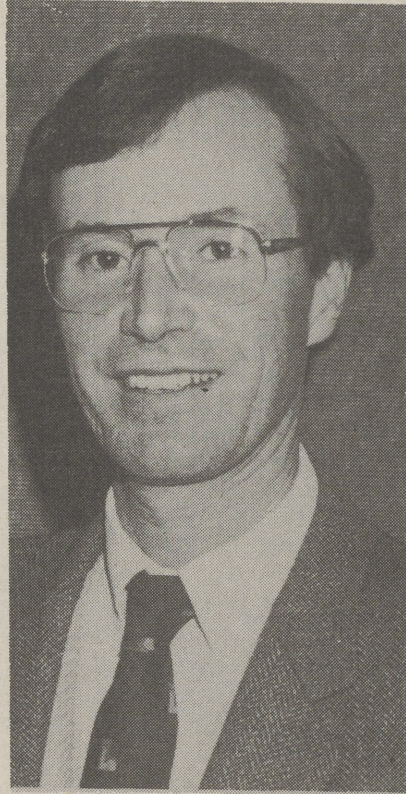

Neil named to accreditation committee

Bruce Neil, of Dallas, chairman of the Hotel and Restaurant Management program at Luzerne County Community College, is serving as a member of the Committee on Two-Year Accreditation/Approval for the Council on Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Education (CHRIE).

Neil, who is also chairman of the college's Tourist and Travel Management curriculum, will begin his term November 10.

CHRIE is a non-profit organization for educators and industry professionals involved in hospitality and tourism education. The mission of CHRIE is to "foster the international advancement of teaching, training, learning, research and practice in the field of hospitality/tourism management; and to encourage and facilitate the professional development of its members."

The purpose of the accreditation/approval committee is to study and make recommendations concerning accreditation of two-year hospitality education programs. Committee members assist the CHRIE Board of Directors in planning and administering both programs and activities.

Bruce Neil

Neil is also a member of the Pennsylvania Travel Council, Pocono Mountain Vacation Bureau, LCCC academic affairs committee, American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA), Northeastern Pennsylvania Restaurant Association, LCCC dietetic advisory committee, Hospitality Educators Mid-Atlantic Region (HEMAR), CHRIE adult learners committee, and other local and national organizations.

Neil is a past recipient of the LCCC Outstanding Faculty Member Award, an annual presentation; and received national recognition this past August from CHRIE for his leadership contributions.

Neil resides in Dallas with his wife Judy, and their children, Michael and Robert.

KIWANIS OFFICERS-Pictured above, from left, Cliff Parker, treasurer; Jim Ward, secretary, Jeff Brightbill, 2nd vice president; John Navich, outgoing president; John Tobias, Lt. Gov. district 15-H; Bob Bossart, incoming president; Charles Kishbaugh, 1st vice president; Bob Dolbear, 35 year member.

Local Kiwanis Club installs new officers

Bob Bossart of Dallas Township, was installed as president of the Kiwanis Club of Dallas, during the club's meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 25 at Irem Temple Country Club. Also installed were vice president Charles Kishbaugh, treasurer Cliff Parker and secretary James Ward. In addition, the following members will serve on the club's Board of Directors: Robert Frodsham, Jeff Brightbill, Bruce Re-nard, Bernard Banks, Jamie Smith, John Navich, Leo Corbett, Elmer Reese, Joe Salla, Jerry Lupien, Joe Schwartz. The immediate past president is John Navich.

Mr. Bossart will be serving as club president on the worldwide Kiwanis team with newly elected Kiwanis International President Noris A. Luche of Lakewood, Colorado. The 1989-90 Kiwanis Major Emphasis Program focuses the organization's resources on community service activities that assist young people with the theme, "Encourage Excellence."

Kiwanis has clubs in more than 73 countries with 320,000 members. Last year, Kiwanis Clubs donated $65 million and more than 22 million volunteer hours for community service projects.

In our service

Richard W. Rogers, son of Carol and Dick Rogers of RD 3, Dallas, has been promoted in the U.S. Army to the rank of sergeant.

Rogers is a journalist with the 19th Support Command in South Korea.

A 1981 graduate of Dallas Senior High School, he is a 1985 graduate of West Virginia University, Morgantown, W.Va.

received instruction in engineer equipment operation, maintenance management, engineer organization, decontamination of heavy equipment, night operations, equipment recovery, special tools and camouflage.

A 1987 graduate of Dallas Senior High School, he joined the Marine Corps Reserves in May 1989.

Holly Pelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reese E. Pelton of 10 Gordon Ave., Dallas, was recently promoted to Radioman 3rd Class at Oceana Naval Air Station where she is stationed. Holly enlisted in the Navy in December 1988 and is a graduate of Mansfield University. Previous to being assigned to Oceana she completed RA School in San Diego, Ca. as top graduate in her class. Her present base is located in Virginia Beach, Va.

Marine Cpl. Rayford A. Petroski, a resident of RD 2, Dallas, recently completed the Basic Engineer Equipment Operators course.

During the 10-week course conducted at Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, N.C. Petroski received instruction in engineer equipment operation, maintenance management, engineer organization, decontamination of heavy equipment, night operations, equipment recovery, special tools and camouflage.

A 1986 graduate of Wyoming Valley West High School, Plymouth, he joined the Marine Corps Reserves in June 1986.

Marine Lance Cpl. John F. Sheehan, a resident of RD 2, Dallas, recently completed the Basic Engineer Equipment Operators Course.

During the 10-week course conducted at Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, N.C., Sheehan

Airman Mark J. Lubinski has graduated from Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

During the six weeks of training the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the community college of the Air Force.

He is the son of Karen R. Lubinski of 92 Poplar St., Dallas.

His uncle, Edward O. Rome, resides in Dallas.

The airman is a 1989 graduate of Dallas High School.

Airman 1st Class Michelle M. Maceiko has graduated from Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

During the six weeks of training the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the community college of the Air Force.

Maceiko is the daughter of Stephen P. and Alice A. Maceiko of RD 2, Harveys Lake.

The airman is a 1987 graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, Lehman.

Rogers promoted

Richard W. Rogers, son of Carol and Dick Rogers of RD 3, Dallas, has been promoted in the U.S. Army to the rank of sergeant.

Rogers is a journalist with the 19th Support Command in South Korea.

A 1981 graduate of Dallas Senior High School, he is a 1985 graduate of West Virginia University, Morgantown, W.Va.

Ward begins her student teaching at the Indiana Area School District

Marilyn L. Ward, a student at IUP from Dallas, is doing her student teaching at Indiana Area Senior High School in the Indiana Area School District during the current semester.

According to Dr. Larry A. Vold, director of professional laboratory experiences (student teaching) at IUP, the university this semester will send approximately 300 students to nearly 60 cooperating school districts within a 50-mile radius of the IUP campus.

Each student spends a total of one semester teaching under the supervision of an experienced professional. Most supervising teachers in the school have master's degrees and have taught for a minimum of three years.

82-ONTAP All your beer needs!!! 347-BEER

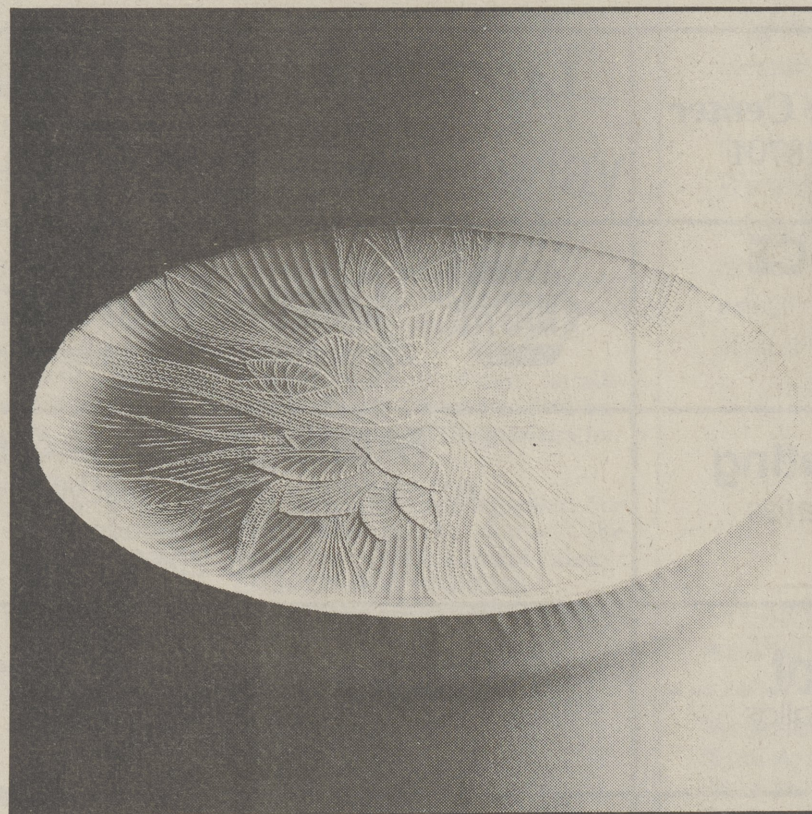

ON TAP SYSTEMS
826-6827	347-2337
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Beverage-Air & U-line Beer Meisters - Co2 Tank Refills - Refrigerator Conversion Kits - Portable Meister Rental 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Beer Tap Handles - Parts & Accessories - Beer Line Cleaning Kits - Beer Memorabilia

290 S. Penna. Blvd., Wilkes-Barre, PA
In The Murray Complex Behind Murray's Inn
NEW HOURS: M.-T.-W. 10-7; TH., F. 10-8; SAT. 9-5
$1.00 Off Co2 Tank Refill With Ad

No Down Payment Financing Visa & MasterCard Layaway

Make Every Day A Holiday!

Receive this beautiful cookie plate when you open a holiday club account.*

Save as little as $2 or as much as $40 a week. And you can make your deposit by coupon book or automatic transfer.

Open your First Eastern Holiday Club account today, and use your cookie plate to make every day a holiday all year through.

Lccc plans homemaker celebration

The 10th Anniversary Planning Committee of the Single Parent and Homemaker program advisory board at Luzerne County Community College met recently to make plans for its upcoming anniversary celebration.

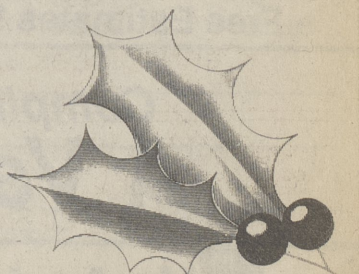

The Single Parent and Homemaker program at LCCC will celebrate its 10th anniversary on Sunday, Nov. 12, beginning at 2:30 p.m., at the college's Educational Conference Center.

According to Vel Shearer, program director/counselor, the LCCC program has served approximately 1,500 single parents and homemakers in its 10 years of existence. The program is funded by the Pennsylvania Department of Education, Bureau of Vocational and Adult Education.

Shown at the planning committee meeting are, seated - Vel Shearer, Wilkes-Barre. From left, standing, Henry Schultz, Bear Creek, president, C.W. SSchultz and Son, Inc.; Elly Miller, Shavertown, coordinator, TeleCollege/TACKLE program at LCCC; and Peg Mihalick, Dallas, director of volunteers, Wyoming Valley Chapter American Red Cross. Absent at the time of photo was Carol O'Malia, Larksville, job developer, Temporary Services of NEPA.

FIRST EASTERN BANK Member FDIC

"Here where you need us"

* Gift free with $10, $20, or $40 club or any automatic transfer club • One gift per qualifying club • Offer and quantities limited • Plate size: 13" On any club closed before the last payment is due, First Eastern will pay the interest to date, but there will be a $5 service charge. © 1989 First Eastern Bank, N.A.