Dallas seniors contributed all season

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

The Dallas Mountaineers won the "Old Shoe" trophy in Saturday's game due to a strong defense and a great team effort. Three Mountaineers who played a key role in Saturday's game, have done so in nearly every game this season.

They've twisted and turned, made the necessary block or done whatever else it took to score or stop an opponent.

Tony Nadzan, Jay Straigs and Barry Miller are all seniors who played their last game for Dallas Saturday. They are like all the Dallas players who gave their all for Dallas head coach Ted Jackson this season.

Tony Nadzan, son of Michael and Christine Nadzan of Dallas, played offensive guard and defensive tackle. Amazingly, he has played football for only four years, three years on the senior high varsity and one year in junior high.

"We called him 'father of the line,'" Barry Miller said. "He always knows all the positions on the line and can tell the players what to do. He is a strong and physical lineman, the strongest player on the team."

"Tony's an intense player," commented Dallas quarterback Jay Straigs. "He has a good attitude and as an offensive guard takes his opponents out so the backs can score. He's a team leader and one of the smartest kids on the team."

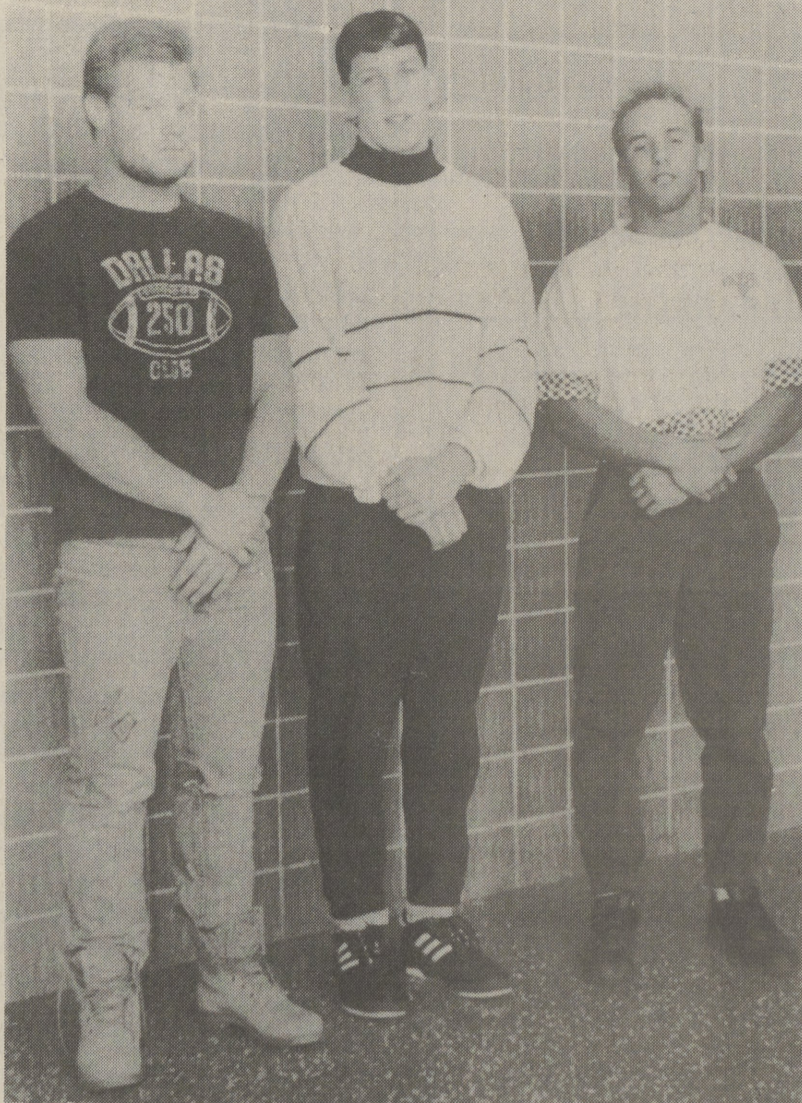

Nadzan also goes out for track, taking part in the runs, jumps or throws, wherever needed. He plans to attend college following graduation.

Jay Straigs, son of John and Peg Straigs of Dallas, played his first year as varsity quarterback this year although he had played defensive back in his sophomore and junior years, but not as a regular starter.

"Jay was the heart of the offense this season and did all the work," Barry Miller said. "He's a strong runner and tough to bring down. He has a strong arm and is a good passer."

"Jay's a good scrambler and can run on an instant decision," Nadzan said. "Jeremiah is usually his receiver. He's a split end and a lot of patterns go through to the split end. The team has a lot of confidence in Straigs."

Straigs also played in junior high. This year he had passed for 930 yards going into the Old Shoe game and then picked up the 70 he needed for a thousand on Saturday. Jay had a total of about 440 rushing after Saturday's game, and ran six and threw nine touchdowns into the endzone this season. Straigs also plans to attend college, but he's not sure where.

Barry Miller, son of Arthur and Dawn Miller, played varsity the past three years as tailback and defensive back.

Going into Saturday's game he had scored 16 touchdowns and had 987 yards rushing. He surpassed the 1,000 yard mark in Saturday's contest.

"Barry's a hard-running back," Nadzan said. "He's quick and a top Class A athlete in the Wyoming Valley Conference, and the hardest hitting in the league."

"Barry understands the defense," Straigs said of his teammate. "He can read the offense and tell you what they're going to do. He has a great attitude."

Miller played basketball in his sophomore year and went out for track as a freshman and says he will probably run track again this spring.

The three athletes had high praise for their coaches, especially head coach Ted Jackson. "He's probably the best, if not the best in the Valley, he's turned the Dallas team around," the athletes said.

What does Coach Jackson say about the three seniors?

"They are three great kids," Jackson said. "Nadzan's played for only three years and has been good for those three years. He's in the weight room every day. He's the strongest and probably the most intelligent on the team. He has good work habits."

"Straigs has had a great year. It's his first year as varsity quarterback and he did an outstanding job. He ran the offense well and he's big and strong and he had only a few interceptions."

"Miller is a hardworking boy. He's excellent at reading the other team's plays. He can run, he's quick and he can hit. Barry's the big play type of guy you want or need on the team," Jackson concluded.

Dallas soccer falls to Delaware Valley

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

The Dallas soccer team had plenty of opportunities to score last Wednesday against Delaware Valley in the first round of inter-districts, but the Warriors goalie Mario Genovese turned back every shot the Mountaineers made.

The game was scoreless until 12:39 into the first period when the Warriors Joel McCabe knocked in a score to give his team a 1-0 lead, all that was needed for the win.

In the second period, Dallas players kept shooting for a score beginning with Eric Ursiak followed by Ken Klimovitz. Jeff Tiner shot for two goals in the third period and Klimovitz hit one off the cross bar.

In the third period Darren Michael hit one which was saved by Genovese then Tiner tried for a goal which went wide. The Dallas boys played a good game but were unable to get by the Warriors goalie.

The loss eliminates Dallas from advancing.

Lake-Lehman band wins Atlantic Coast title

The Lake-Lehman High School Band has won the Atlantic Coast Championship in field show competition for the fourth straight year.

The Tournament of Bands Championship Competition was held at the Lackawanna County Stadium this past weekend. One hundred of the best high school marching bands from 10 states competed for the honor of becoming the Atlantic Coast Champions.

This competition had bands competing in four groups depending on their size. Lehman competed against 25 bands in Group II and outscored everyone by earning 95.95 points out of 100. They stole the show receiving trophies for Best Music, Best Marching, Best Brass, Best Woodwinds and Best Drum Major.

Along their route back to the school, their busses were greeted by fire trucks and many cars of well wishers to join in the caravan of victory.

Lady Knight volleyballers ousted from play

Tracy Krupa played a good all-round game and D-D Mazur and Jill Smigelski played well at the net but it wasn't enough for the Lady Knights volleyball team, who was eliminated from the PIAA state playoffs last Friday after they lost three matches.

The Lady Knights took the District 2 title ending the season with a 12-2 record to advance them to the last Class AA playoffs. The inexperience of the four sophomores and a freshman proved to be the downfall of the girls as they lost to Middlesex 15-4, 15-7. Mid-dlex is the District 10 champion.

In the second round Delone Catholic defeated the Knights 15-6, 15-4, and in the next match, Elderton, District 7 runner-up defeated Lake-Lehman 15-4, 15-3.
