Flying Karamazovs at the Kirby Friday

The Flying Karamazov Brothers have issued a challenge to all who will be attending their Friday, November 17, 8 p.m. performance at the F.M. Kirby Center: Bring them something you feel they won't be able to juggle. Anything...within reason.

The renowned jugglers and slapstick artists will be appearing to benefit the Wyoming Seminary Lower School Parents' Association, and to delight people of all ages with their combination musical and comedic talents.

The segments of their act known as "The Gamble" has been performed successfully and with a great deal of fun involved. Members of the audience are invited to bring something that they feel is impossible for the Karamazovs to juggle. In the past, they have juggled jello, pizza, a chicken and other objects of unusual shape or consistency. Their requirements, however, are that the object be smaller than a breadbox and weigh less than 10 pounds.

"This is only one aspect of their act which is unique from beginning to end," commented Jann Fay, chairperson of the event. "We encourage the audience to take full advantage of this challenge to enhance the fun of the evening."

Tickets for the Flying Karamazov Brothers are available by calling the Wyoming Seminary Lower School at 288-5431 or at the Kirby box office.

Calendar items should be submitted by Friday two weeks in advance if they are to run twice. Drop them off at our office or send them to: The Dallas Post, P.O. Box 366, Dallas PA 18612
