Dallas High Council had busy October

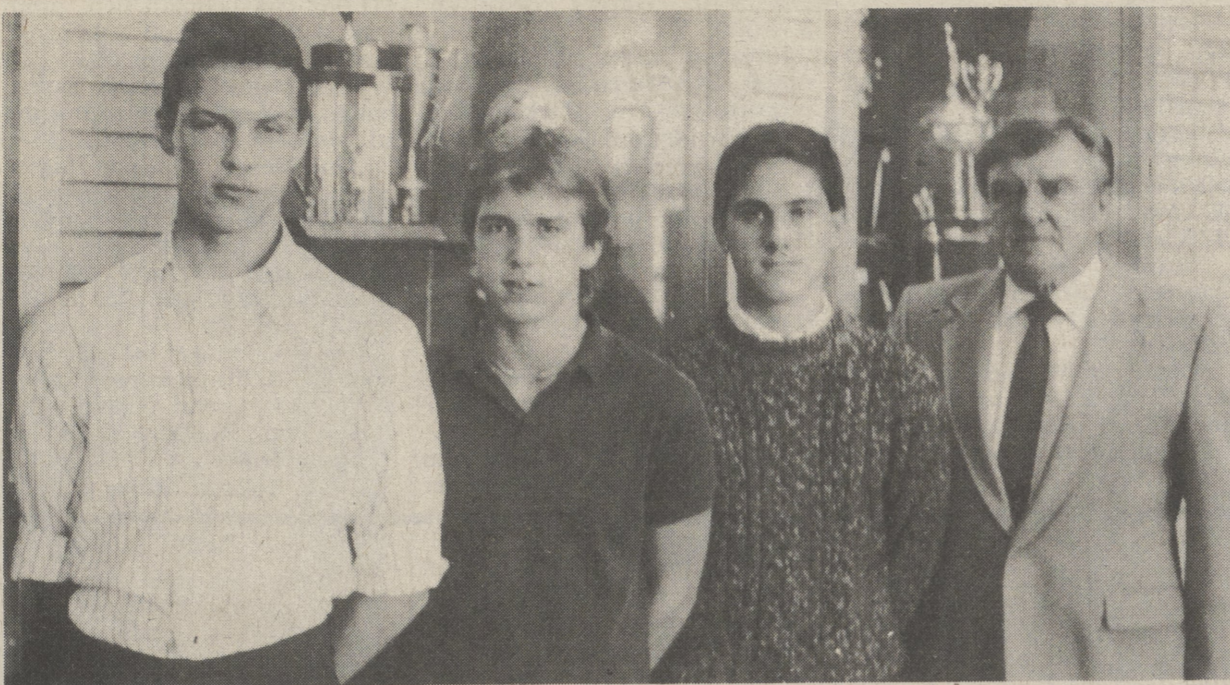

The Dallas Senior High School Student Council recently sponsored its annual Halloween dress-up day. Winners were selected by a special faculty committee. The categories were unusual, scariest, prettiest, and funniest. Winners received a movie pass.

The Student Council recently held its 6th annual Spirit Chain Competition during Homecoming's Spirit Week. The spirit chain money raised is used to support school activities, projects and functions that benefits all students.

Also, as part of its continuing public service commitment the Dallas Senior High School Student Council held its semi-annual Blood Drive on October 5. The Student Council and National Honor Society will team up and sponsor the annual food drive to benefit the Back Mountain Food Bank. The food drive will be held prior to the Christmas holidays.

There are 56 members of Student Council for the 1989-90 school year. The officers are Renee Strauser, president; Wayde Post, vice president; Jodi Kern, secretary; Andrea Shone, treasurer. Michael Shevock is Student Council Advisor.
