Niezgoda cheers on Wooster squad

Kimberly Niezgoda, a first-year student at The College of Wooster, is a member of Wooster's cheerleading squad. The squad is responsible for supporting and generating enthusiasm for each of Wooster's 21 varsity sports (11 men's and 10 women's).

Niezgoda, a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, also will be cheering for the Fighting Scot and Lady Scot basketball teams this winter. She is the daughter of Helen Skapura of Dallas.

Laurie Bricker, advisor to the Scot cheerleaders said, "Wooster's cheerleaders are a hard-working group of women. They have put a lot of energy into rebuilding the program and they can usually be found practicing somewhere every evening. Wooster should be proud of this fine group of women."
