Terrell D. Smith named President's Fellow at Trinity

Terrell D. Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Smith Jr. of 50 Terrace Drive, Dallas, has been selected by the Trinity College faculty as the President's Fellow in American studies for the 1989-90 academic year.

Each academic department and program at Trinity annually nominates a senior major to be a President's Fellow. Selection is based on outstanding achievement in the major, as well as evidence of wide-ranging intellectual interest. The Fellows meet with College President Tom Gerety and members of the faculty and administration throughout the year to discuss a variety of topics related to college life and other educational issues.

Smith has been a member of the concert choir and has worked as a volunteer at Cinestudio, the campus movie theater. She was a student assistant in the career counseling office during her junior year and worked on the layout of the Trinity yearbook, the "Ivy."

She is a 1986 graduate of Wyoming Seminary in Kingston.
