Dallas Rotary treats kids to Christmas shopping spree

The Dallas Rotary Club recently took 30 children from the Lake-Lehman and Dallas School Districts on a big Christmas shopping spree.

Members of Dallas Rotary, along with many of their wives, accompanied each child. First the children were provided with breakfast of pancakes and orange juice at McDonald's in Shavertown. From there they were taken to Pomeroy's Department Store in the Midway Shopping Center where store officials welcomed the children and "turned us loose" to shop. Parents had prepared a list of clothing needed and sizes to assist Rotarians in their purchasing. Many children needed shoes or boots and they were taken to the J.S. Raub Shoe Store and fitted by store personnel.

At the end of the shopping spree everyone assembled in the meeting room at Pomeroy's and the children were given punch, cookies, candy, popcorn, candy canes and Santa appeared with additional gifts for all children.

Dallas Rotarians returned the children to their homes and truly felt the spirit of Christmas. We are not sure who had the most delight in the shopping spree, the children or the "Dallas Rotary Parents" who witnessed the excitement and happiness in the eyes of the children.
