Knights lose big to GAR

By CHARLOT M. DENMON Staff Writer

After defeating Wyoming Seminary 41-36 Tuesday night at the Blue Knights court, the Lake-Lehman Black Knights were hit hard by GAR, which trounced them 82-44. The Grenadiers came out strong in the first period outscoring the Knights 16-8 and getting stronger in the second period as they outscored their opponents 19-8.

"They are a great team and they outplayed us all the way," said Knights Coach Rodger Bearde. "We waited for us to make mistakes then jumped in and took advantage of the opportunities.

They did their scouting well and anticipated our play."

Rob Wilson was the only double figures scorer for the Knights with 17 points.

In Tuesday night's game, Glen Nilsson scored five points in the final period to lead the Knights in defeating Wyoming Seminary 41-36. He had a total of eight points, two of them three-point shots. Ben Haughney led the Knights in scoring with 12 points all of them from the field.

Neither team shot well from the foul line with Seminary tossing in only two of six attempts and the Knights dumping in only six of 18 shots.

Up to $3,000 off is a good reason to buy an '89 Saab. But not the best reason.

Best reasons:

No other car in the world gives you all a Saab does in one terrific package: 16-valve performance, the security and handling of front-wheel drive, exceptional roominess and the best safety record on wheels!

Plus a host of standards most car companies consider extras. Standard air-conditioning, Standard AM/FM stereo cassette, Standard heated front seats, Standard power door locks.

And a level of driving enjoyment that sets a new standard for all who experience it.
