Shavertown church begins its Centennial Year

With the installation of a special sign on the church lawn, the congregation of the Shavertown United Methodist Church recently declared the year 1990 as its Centennial Year, marking the 100th year of its founding. A special Centennial lawn sign, designating 1990 as the 100th Anniversary year of the Shavertown United Methodist Church, was recently erected, launching the congregation into a year of celebration. Some highlights of the anniversary year include a New Life Mission, March 18 through 22; a Pictorial Director in March and April; a weekend of September 7-9 which will feature a banquet, a concert, a dedication of an historical room, and special worship services. Bishop James M. Ault will be present to participate during this weekend. Pictured in the photo with the sign are, from left, Alice Borthwick, Sandra Karrott, Pastor Harriet Santos, Mary Lou Swingle, Paster James Wert, Eldwood Swingle and Chick Kozak, creator of the sign.

Franklin named DER Williamsport Director

Paul Franklin of Hunlock Creek, Luzerne County, today was named director of the Williamsport regional office of environmental protection for the Department of Environmental Resources (DER). "With more than 15 years of experience in the administration of environmental and public health programs, Paul Franklin is well-qualified to direct the state's environmental programs in north central Pennsylvania," DER Secretary Arthur A. Davis said. Franklin will supervise 115 employees involved in air, water, sanitation, and waste management programs for 14 counties. The counties are Bradford, Cameron, Clearfield, Centre, Clinton, Columbia, Lycoming, Montour, Northumberland, Potter, Snyder, Sullivan, Tioga and Union. Since 1986, Franklin has been employed as DER's Wilkes-Barre regional sanitation manager and regional water quality manager. He was responsible for administering regional regulatory programs involving sewage treatment, sewage planning and grants administration, enforcement of the Clean Streams law, drinking water, public eating and drinking establishments, public bathing facilities and vector control. Franklin, who joined DER in June 1974, also served as a sanitation supervisor for various DER offices in north central and northeastern Pennsylvania. He was a police officer for Blomberg and a public school teacher in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Franklin holds a bachelor degree from Bloomsburg University and a master's degree from Marywood College, Scranton.
