Versatile performance slated for Wyoming Seminary

It's not often that one encounters a singing group that can perform almost every style of music imaginable. One such group, "The Western Wind", is scheduled as part of Wyoming Seminary's Performing Arts Series on Wednesday, Jan. 31, at 8 p.m. in the Buckingham Performing Arts Center, Sprague Avenue, Kingston. Free and open to the public, the show will feature six vocal virtuosos whose specialty is...everything! This "acapella" group will sing Fifties "do-wop" and Renaissance motets, Medieval carols and barbershop quartet, avant garde pieces and folk melodies. In America, the Ensemble has appeared at many distinguished institutions including Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, Kennedy Center, ArtPark, New York's Metropolitan Museum and Frick Museum, Folger Shakespeare Library, Library of Congress, Cleveland Museum of Art, Dartmouth College, Wellesley College, and the University of Wisconsin.

In Europe, the sextet taped early and contemporary American vocal music for the West German National Radio (WDR) at Cologne and made several triumphant tours of northern Italy, performing Italian Renaissance as well as American music. The group has appeared with the RAI Orchestra and Chorus of Rome, at the Rome Opera, and at Venice's legendary opera house, La Fenice. In 1985, The Western Wind premiered Cesar Franck's opera, Stradella, for La Fenice in an outdoor Venetian setting. At the request of the State Department (USIA), The Western Wind performed American and Latin American music throughout East Asia in the spring of 1985. In addition to its concert tours, the group has appeared on the Today Show and made several award-winning recordings. For more information, call John M. Vaida, Chairman, Fire Arts Department at 283-6017.
