Knights one win from title

By CHARLOT M. DENMON

The Lake-Lehman Knights 57-9 win over Tunkhannock Saturday night puts them only one win away from taking the Wyoming Valley Wrestling Conference title. The Knights need a win over Nanticoke on the Back Mountain mats this Wednesday to give them the crown and an undefeated season.

While there is little doubt in the minds of many of the fans that the Knights will win the final match, the Knights coaches still stick to their often-quoted explanation "We take only one meet at a time; the boys have to give 100 percent since there can always be an upset."

nity to earn a berth in the playoffs. "What happens depends on the Scranton teams," explained Coach Rodger Bearde. "If Lakeland makes Poynton continued her strong the playoffs, GAR will be first in Division AA, Dallas will be second and we will be third and Lakeland fourth. If Lakeland doesn't make it, and one of the other Scranton teams do, then there could be a playoff for a spot between Dallas and Lake-Lehman.

"Dallas is a Division II team playing in triple AAA during the season so they deserve a chance in the playoffs. The Scranton teams don't finish when we do so we will have to wait and see what happens," Bearde continued.

"In the game with West Side Tech, they played hard and gave us a fight for a time, but then we opened up and drew away from them taking a nine point lead into the lockerroom at halftime," Bearde said.
