Knights still in basketball playoffs

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

Despite their loss to Dallas Saturday, the Lake-Lehman Knights are still in the Division AA playoffs.

"Dallas played in the Division AAA during the league season but they still deserved a chance to play for an opportunity in the Division AA," explained Coach Rodger Bearde. "As it turned out, we were the team they had to play. If they lost they were done, but win or lose we were in because of our record in Class AA. We wanted the win but they were too big for us," Bearde said about his Knights 70-57 loss.

The Knights defeated Meyers 71-46 last Thursday night to end the second half with an 8-2 record, identical to their first half.

Rob Wilson tossed in 26 points, one of them a three-pointer and Glen Nilsson put in 14, including two three-pointers to lead the Knights in the big win. Mike Strutko put in 12, five from the field and two-for-three from the foul line.

Wendy Hozempa signs with No. Illinois

Wendy Hozempa of Dallas High School signed an NCAA Division I national letter of intent at a ceremony at the school Friday to accept a scholarship to attend and play hockey for Northern Illinois.

Hozempa is one of three Wyoming Valley Hockey Conference players to attend Northern Illinois and play hockey there. Sue Hudock and Debbie Skoronski, both of Crestwood are the other two hockey players.

Wendy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hozempa of Dallas. She was named Most Valuable Player on the West team in the WVC Field Hockey Coaches Senior All-Star game played in November. At Dallas she played midfield, left wing and right wing. She ended the past season with seven goals and 11 assists.

Hozempa said when she visited Northern Illinois she fell in love with it. "I knew right away that is where I wanted to go to school. The people were wonderful. In the beginning I was thinking about Bloomsburg but when I got to Northern Illinois I loved it. The campus is beautiful."

Hozempa who is a good academic student plans to major in elementary education.

Hozempa has also played right field for the high school softball team for the past two seasons.

Lake-Lehman and Dallas wrestlers ready for districts this weekend

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

AAA and AA wrestlers will be seeking district titles and advancing to regional competition Friday and Saturday, March 2 and 3 at the Scandlon Gym on the King's College campus.

In AA, Lake-Lehman Knights are considered the favorites with Coaches Tom Williams and Phil Lipski hoping to take home their first district championship. The Knights under their former coaches were runnersup last year.

Meyers is also seeking the title this year which is held by defending champion Crestwood.

The opening round of the district competition is scheduled to begin Friday at 5 p.m. with multiple mats used. Semi-finals are scheduled for Saturday, 10 a.m. and consolation will be at 6 p.m. Finals are planned for 7:30 p.m.

Wyoming Valley West is the defending AAA champion and will be trying for their third consecutive district title. Coughlin and Wyoming Area will be aiming to upset the Spartans.

In the AAA competition, depending on which wrestlers may go up or drop in weight, 171-lb. Jamie Janosky and 189-lb. Wade Post of Dallas may surprise.

In AA competition Lake-Lehman has Rich Peiffer and J.J. Konigus, last year's champs returning. 112-lb. Charlie Roper could be a winner at this weight and young Charlie Jacoby could come through for the Knights at 119, unless Chris Smith comes in at this weight. Smith could walk away with a top place at 119.

Jacoby could also be a winner at 125 if he can beat out Shields from Valley View or a Meyers opponent.

Rich Peiffer will be the favorite at 130-lbs. this year but Comet Tose could surprise if he enters here. Other contenders who could surprise are Meyers M. Fraley or Jackson from Valley View.

If Knight Jason Naugle comes in at 140 he could place in the top three with a strong performance. If 145-lb. Terry Martin meets Meyers' Chris Edwards at this weight it could be an exciting bout.

152-lbs. and 160-lbs. are dependent on who stays up or goes down. O'Hara's M. McLafferty took 152-lb. title last year and if he comes in at this weight, he could meet Mike Geurin if the Knights go down. If Meyers' Serafin comes down it will be an interesting class.

If Serafin stays up at 160-lb., McLafferty stays there and Geurin stays at 160 and Trojan Kruscek stays up, this will be a 'don't predict' class.

Knight 171-lb. P.J. Goodwin could win at this weight for the Knights and 189-lb. Ray Rosencrans could take home a win. Hwt. J.J. Konigus will be after his second crown and should be able to take it.

The seeding will take place Thursday and no doubt there will be eliminations, juggling in weight and making weight. The Scranton teams may also bring in some surprises.

Dallas overpowers Lake-Lehman to advance to Class AA playoffs

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

After competing in AAA all season, the Dallas Mountaineers qualified for the Class AA playoffs last Saturday night by defeating the Lake-Lehman Knights 70-57.

Three of the five Dallas starters hit in the double figures, with Eric Nardone hitting for 25 points, Damon Lisnow scoring 15 points and junior Ray Russin tossing in 16.

The Mountaineers used a man-to-man defense to gradually take a 15-10 lead at the end of the first quarter and continued to outscore the Black Knights in the second period to take a 31-21 lead into the lockerroom at halftime.

In the third quarter, Nardone and Russin each hit for eight points to keep Dallas in the lead and the tall Mountaineers dominated the boards throughout the game.

Rob Wilson put in 16 points for the Knights and Glen Nilsson tossed in 10. Mike Strutko and Bob Jones came off the bench and scored 11 points each for the Black Knights.

The win was crucial for the Mountaineers who would have been eliminated from the Class AA playoffs if they lost to the Black Knights. The Knights were guaranteed a spot in the playoffs win or lose. During the league season, the Mountaineers played in Division I with the AAA teams but were eligible to vie for a playoff spot in Class AA.

Earlier in the week, the Mountaineers defeated Tunkhannock 52-43 Thursday night on the Ti-Lisnow and Brett Gauntlett rallied for 14 points in the fourth quarter to overcome the Tigers and win. The score was tied at 20-20 at the end of the half and the Dallas boys pulled in front 32-29 at the end of the third quarter.

Meyers tops Lady Knights

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

Lake-Lehman's Lady Knights took a first half 39-37 over the Meyers girls in Thursday night's game on the Lady Mohawks court, but the Mohawks came back behind hot shooting by Kim Maguire and rallied to win 69-65.

Maguire scored a game-high 39 points in the game, putting 17 goals through the nets from the field and going five for nine from the free stripe. Penny Hettrick hit 16 points for the Mohawks to take the win, which gave them a 3-7 record in the second half.

Wendy Skibitsky hit 28 points for the Knights tossing 12 from the field, two of them three pointers and dumping in two-for-three from the charity stripe. Alyson Davis hit double figures with 20 points for the Knights.

Little League registration tonight

Final registration for the Orange Little League, Franklin Township and half of Valley View Trailer Park, will be held on Wednesday, February 28 at 6 p.m. in the basement of the Orange Methodist Church for girls and boys ages 6 to

All children must be accompanied by an adult with a copy of their birth certificate. There will be a short meeting immediately after registration for parents, coaches and managers.
