For more information call 825-1844 or 735-8700.

4-H Club sets rabies clinic

The Luzerne County K-9 Kennel 4-H Dog Club recently held its monthly meeting. The topics for the month included housebreaking a puppy, necessary immunizations and parasite control.

Plans to hold a rabies clinic in May were discussed and will be finalized at the March meeting. The group hopes to make available to the public a convenient, low-cost opportunity to comply with Pennsylvania law and protect their animals from this deadly disease.

Members of the 4-H Club will soon begin to work their dogs in Basic Obedience with the help of an experienced trainer. Future plans include learning fundamentals of grooming and showing.

Young people between the ages of 8 and 18 are welcome to join. Meetings are held the first Tuesday of the month, 7:15 p.m. at Haddle's Kennel/Pet Care Associates, Kunkle.

For more information, call 675-1621 or Christine Tomascik, 4-H Coordinator, Luzerne County Cooperative Service.

Back Mountain Republicans to elect officers for 1990

The Back Mountain Republican Association will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, March 7, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at the Kingston Township Municipal Building, Trucksville. Election of new officers will be held during the March meeting.

Martha Reese, Dallas, will complete her second year as president of the Back Mountain Republican Association, and will turn over the top leadership post to the new president who will be selected during the meeting.

Other officers of the association finishing a one year term include Vern Pritchard, Trucksville, vice president; Len Kozick, Dallas, treasurer; Therese Gwilliam, Harveys Lake, secretary and Eileen Sgarlat, Harveys Lake, recording secretary.

William Tippett, nomination committee chairman, will present a slate of nominations for president, vice president, secretary and treasurer for consideration by the association members.

All interested Back Mountain Republicans are invited to attend this important meeting.

Adopt-a-pet

Inky, two-year-old black Domestic Short-haired cat is waiting for someone to visit the Luzerne County SPCA and take Inky home with them. Inky, who has been loved by a family for two years was given to the SPCA by his family because they were moving and couldn't keep poor Inky in their new home.

He is house-broken, has had his shots and just wants someone to love him and give him attention. Stop at the SPCA on Fox Hill Road, Wilkes-Barre. Call for visiting hours which are held daily through the week.

Steinem to 'appear' at Penn State

Gloria Steinem will appear via satellite broadcast at Penn State Wilkes-Barre on Thursday, March 22, 8 p.m. at the teleconference auditorium of the new Center for Technology.

The public is invited free of charge. A discussion will follow.

Steinem, one of the country's best known and most critically acclaimed non-fictioned writers, will be broadcast live from the Penn State Behrend Campus in Erie.

She was a founder of Ms. Magazine, and was one of the conveners of the National Women's Political Caucus in 1971, now serving on its Advisory Committee. She is also a founder and member of the coalition of Trade Union Women, a member of the National Advisory Board of the National Organization for Women, and chairperson of the Women's Action Alliance.

She has written for television and for several political campaigns, most notably those of Robert Kennedy, George McGovern and Shirley Chisholm. Her most frequent writing subjects are politics, current sociology and profiles, with special emphasis on political movements among women.

Her topic for the lecture will be "Women: The New Immigrants." Audience members at Penn State Wilkes-Barre will be able to ask questions of Ms. Steinem by telephone. A local discussion session will follow.

Her lecture coincides with Penn State Wilkes-Barre's observance of National Women's History Month.

For more information, contact Penn State Wilkes-Barre at 675-2171.

Volunteers needed for inmate program

The Threshold Program, a nationally known, decision making program for pre-release prison inmates will begin its 13th year at the State Correctional Institution in Dallas (SCID) in April.

The Threshold Program began at SCID in April of 1978 when the first group of volunteers was trained by a group from the Lehigh Threshold Program. Two sessions are offered each year, a fall and a spring session.

Community volunteers are trained as Threshold teachers and these individuals meet on a one to one basis with prison inmates who are scheduled for release.

The Threshold Program teaches inmates the decision making process by exposure and practice and by encouraging the inmate to accept the consequences of his decisions.

The program at SCID is supported by the staff and administration of the institution.

The community volunteer portion of the program is under the co-direction of Sr. Barbara Craig, RSM and Mrs. Ingrid Prater.

Volunteers are needed to help in the upcoming session. The more volunteers, the more inmates that can participate in the program. Volunteers will receive full training at sessions scheduled for March 24 and 25 from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at the Parish House of the Prince of Peace Church, Main Street, Dallas. Volunteers are required to commit to one night per week for 10 weeks during which time the sessions with the inmates will take place.

For more information about the Threshold Program, please contact Mrs. Ingrid Prater at 823-9548 after 5 p.m.

Help make a difference: take the Threshold step.
