Ray Rosencrans and J. J. Konigus going on to state wrestling meet

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

Lake-Lehman Junior Ray Rosencrans won the 189-lb. Northeast Regional wrestling crown Saturday night at Williamsport by defeating GAR's Joe Ebert 10-2 in the final bout.

Rosencrans moved into the finals when he defeated Hughesville Kevin Brenelsen 15-8 in overtime Saturday afternoon in the semi-final. Friday night he defeated Darryn Ryder of Line Mountain 7-2 to move ahead.

The win qualifies Rosencrans for the state competition which begins at Hershey this Thursday.

Senior J.J. Konigus also made it to the finals but lost 6-0 to Hwt. Rich Snyder of Millinburg to settle for second. Konigus made it to the finals by taking a major 15-2 decision from Central Columbia's Steve Lewis in the semi-finals and in the preliminaries he took a major 15-4 decision from Hwt. Chris Fabian of Liberty.

Both Rosencrans and Konigus will go to the states since the top three in each weight class advance.

Co-coaches Tom Williams and Phil Lipski are proud of the showing made by their wrestlers this year.

"We have a young squad, most of them undergraduates, who will be back next year. Regionals are very tough; the kids are going against the best in their weights. We had a good showing in the opening round with 10 of our boys advancing to Saturday's competition. Eight of those boys will be back next year," Williams said.

"Six of the 10 who advanced won at least one match which gives them the experience they need. If you have one or two win or place in regionals, you can be proud of them. Some of our boys were freshmen or sophomores and we are very proud of them.

"We knew we had a bunch of dedicated and hard-working kids when the season started but they surprised us by going as far as they have," Williams explained. "Now with a lot of hard work and a little luck, we hope we can bring back a state champ. This weekend will tell."

Knights who advanced to the semi-finals last week at regionals were 112-lb. Charley Roper; 135-lb. Jason Naugle; 140-lb. Dave Konopke; 152-lb. Mike Geurin; 189-lb. Ray Rosencrans and Hwt. J.J. Konigus.

Also advancing to wrestle back and make the consolation were 125-lb. Charlie Jacoby and 171-lb. P.J. Goodwin. Both lost in the consolation.

OFF TO A GOOD START - The Penn State Wilkes-Barre Baseball team enjoyed a successful Spring Training trip to Florida where they finished 7-3, with a whopping .357 batting average. The team opens at Penn State Hazleton on March 25, at 12 noon.

Penn State team off to strong start

The Penn State Wilkes-Barre Baseball Team this week returned from a 10-game spring training trip to Cocoa Beach, Florida. Head Coach Joe Phillips' team finished 7-3 overall, outscoring their opponents 95 to 57, and connecting for 17 homeruns. The team batting average was a whopping .357 (96 for 269) on the road. The team also stole 33 out of 36 bases. The games were played against teams from Penn State's Capital, Ogontz, Shenango Valley and Berks campuses.

Penn State was the smallest team having only 12 players. Each played a major role in their outstanding performance.

Freshman Shawn Williams led the team with a .538 batting average, going 14 for 26, with 3 homeruns and 11 RBI's.

Sophomore Tom Palfey led the team with four homeruns and went 12 for 26 at the plate to finish with a .462 batting average and 10 RBI's.

Freshman Brad Harvey followed with a .407 batting average, 9 RBI's, and 3 homeruns. He also stole 6 out of 7 bases.

Sophomore T.J. Kashatus added a .381 batting average (8 for 21) with 3 home runs and led the team with 12 RBI's.

Sophomore Ric Vargason had a .375 batting average (9 for 24) and led the team in doubles with four.

Freshman Jeff Towle with a .391 batting average (9 for 23) led the way to victory in the first game against Capitol campus where he went 4 for 5 with a homerun.

Freshman Brett Wambold added a .304 batting average (7 for 23) and stole 5 out of 5 bases.

Freshman Dennis Butler led the way to victory in the eighth game where he went 3 for 3 with two stolen bases.

Freshman Gary Scruitsky

added two homeruns and a .292 batting average (7 for 24).

Freshman Troy Creech was tied for the team lead in walks (9) and added a .294 batting average (5 for 17).

Freshman Stefan Strauser tied Scruitsky for the team lead in walks (9). His best day came in a key performance in the second game against Shenango Valley campus where he drove in 3 RBI's to break the game open.

Freshman Randy Coolbaugh sparked a rally in the fifth game versus Shenango in which he hit a grand slam and drove in 5 RBI's.

The team enjoyed a once-in-lifetime moment as they observed the space shuttle Atlantis blast off from its launching pad.

The team will open on Sunday, March 25, at Penn State Hazleton with a doubleheader starting at 12 noon.

Lady Mounts, Knights fall in playoffs

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

The Dallas and Lake-Lehman girls basketball teams did no better than the boys in the district playoffs last Wednesday night.

The Dallas Lady Mounts bowed to Tunkhannock in the final quarter when the Tigers dumped in 11 of 17 attempts from the foul line at Wyoming Area High School.

Both teams were even on goals from the field with each picking up 19, but the game was won from the free throw stripe with the Tigers making 14-for-22 while the Lady Mountaineers hit only 8-for-17.

The Tigers made a number of turnovers in the first half, but regrouped at the half and played a much more physical game. Pam Yanora and Sherri Crigas each tossed in 17 points, but it was Jodi Williams who surprised the Mountaineers by hitting the double figures column with 10 points for the Tigers.

In the fourth quarter Crigas gave the Tigers the lead but freshman Tara Lisnow's scoring, including a three-point shot, brought Dallas within three points.

The Lady Mounts, however, were unable to overtake the Tigers who were hot on free throws and went down 52-46 ending their season, while the Tigers advanced to meet Pittston Area Friday night at Bishop Hoban court.

LADY KNIGHTS BOW TO DUNMORE IN OVERTIME

Lake-Lehman's Lady Knights ran their game into overtime against Dunmore but Dunmore's JoAnn Fanning gave the Bucks the win by scoring seven points in the extra period to overtake the Knights lead. Fanning hit a game-high 29 points.

With only 36 seconds remaining in the regular game, and the Knights trailing 45-43, D.D. Mazur scored two points to tie the score and send the game into overtime.

In overtime, Jen Smith scored to give the Knights a 47-45 lead but Fanning hit a three-point shot to give Dunmore a one-point lead. Then she hit a two point shot to give her team a 50-47 lead. But Wendy Skibitsky gave the Knights two points by hitting both ends of a one-and-one. With Dunmore leading by only one, the Knights Heidi Wenrich failed to make a one-and-one and Dunmore took the ball and began to stall, but Fanning gave the Bucks the win by scoring on a one-and-one with only seconds on the clock.

Dunmore advanced to play Riverside Friday and the Knights advanced to play Carbondale for the No. 3 seed Friday night.

B'ball teams sought for CYC tourney

The Wyoming Valley CYC is now accepting teams for their Sixth Annual Small Men's and Open Basketball Tournament. This year's action will begin on Saturday, March 31. Games will be played throughout the following week. The finals are set for the weekend of April 7 and 8.

The tourney will be single elimination with the first place team in each division receiving a team trophy and individual trophies. A most valuable player will also be awarded in each division.

Rosters should be turned in by Wednesday, March 28. A limited number of teams are being taken so register early to ensure your team a spot. Players can be added to your roster throughout the tourney provided they have not played for another team in the tourney. Rules and roster can be picked up at the CYC, 36 S. Washington Street, Wilkes-Barre. For further information call 823-6121.
