Reverend Jack Yost to speak at Noxen Bible Church

Evangelist Jack Yost of Berwick, President and founder of the Yost Evangelistic Ministry, Inc., will be speaking at the Noxen Bible Church beginning Sunday March 25 through Wednesday, March 28 each evening at 7 p.m. Children's meetings will be held each evening at the same time with Mrs. Dottie Yost. A nursery is provided at all meetings.

Since 1955, Reverend Jack Yost has been a full-time evangelist addressing the deepest needs of people in church meetings, area crusades, and family seminars in the U.S. and Canada. Jack Yost is an avid sportsman, having hunted big and small game in many states and Canada, a concerned citizen, and the dedicated father of four daughters. All of this experience combined with Bible training at Bob Jones University has created in Jack Yost a speaker who will appeal to all ages and walks of life.

Mrs. Yost carries out a unique ministry to children during the evening meetings teaching Bible truths through rhythm instruments, contests, and visual aids. In addition, Mrs. Yost will speak at a Ladies' Tea at 10 a.m. on Tuesday at the church to which all ladies are invited and for which babysitting is again provided.

Noxen Bible Church is located on Route 29 approximately 10 miles south of Tunkhannock and 12 miles north of Sweet Valley in Noxen. The church can be reached from Dallas by driving north on Route 309 and then south on Route 29 for two miles. Pastor Taylor warmly welcomes the public to the Jack Yost meetings. Call 298-2030 for details.

Meadows holds tea

The Activities Department at the Meadows Nursing Center, Dallas, recently hosted an "Afternoon Tea" for residents at the Center. Residents enjoyed wearing hats from yester-year and tea was served from a silver service. Piano entertainment was provided by Arline Wertman, Meadows volunteer. Shown is Rita Nichols, Activities Assistant, pouring tea for resident Jessie Moore. Mrs. Moore has been a Back Mountain resident for over 50 years.

Nathan N. Schiowitz to be honored at UJA dinner

Mrs. Essy Davidowitz, General Chairman of the 1990 United Jewish Appeal/Federation Campaign, announces that its opening dinner will be held on Sunday, March 25 at the Jewish Community Center at 6:30 p.m. Nathan N. Schiowitz will be honored.

A resident of the Wyoming Valley since 1907, Schiowitz was the founder of General Supply and Paper Company, a leader in the packaging industry. From 1942 to 1946, he served as a Captain in the Air Transport Command of the U.S. Air Corps. He has served on the Boards of the Jewish Welfare Agency, the Jewish Community Center, United Hebrew Institute, the Jewish Family Service and Congregation Ohav Zedek, where he also served as President. He is the treasurer of the Jewish Federation and a trustee of the Jewish Community Center. Following Hurricane Agnes, he chaired the Jewish Community Center's Flood Reconstruction Committee. He is also a Mason and a member of the Irem Temple

Shrine and of the Ecumenical Enterprises, Inc. Council Board.

The dinner will also feature Dr. Gerald Meister as guest speaker. Meister is the Director of the Israel Institute for Inter-Religious Studies, located in Jerusalem, Israel, a consortium of scholars devoted to inter-religious studies. In addition, he is the Director of the Ramapo Institute, located in Rockland County, New York, a research center specializing in international relations, strategic studies and political theology.

Judge Max Rosenn is honorary dinner chairman.

Almost one-half of the funds raised are allocated to local organizations including the Jewish Community Center and the Jewish Family Service, both United Way Agencies, with a portion of the remainder to programs in Israel for the needs of health, education and social welfare.

Reservations may be made with the Federation Office. Connie Roth is the President and Robert S. Capin, the Executive Director.

Nesbitt to hold Open House for interested Volunteers

"What I find enjoyable about my volunteer position are the people; both the visitors and patients..." This is a typical comment of volunteers at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. The Kingston hospital extends an invitation to an Open House, Tuesday, March 27 to all community members who may be interested in volunteering.

This informal gathering will take place from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., and also between 7 p.m. and 8 p.m. in the Volunteer Services Office, 64 Poplar Street, Kingston. Guests may complete volunteer applications and learn more about the hospital's volunteer program. New members will join an established, vital team of 100 community volunteers and about 300 auxiliaries.

Recent changes in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's volunteer program feature a fun and interesting activity every month; and a newsletter for volunteers to share information and be made aware of new openings. Some of the many volunteer opportunities available at the hospital include patient transportation, mail and flower delivery, light clerical work, fundraising social events, information desks, and candy striper supervision.

Upton to serve as interim pastor

Trinity United Presbyterian Church, Dallas, is pleased to announce that Rev. Robert Upton will be serving as their Interim Pastor, assuming his duties on March 21. Rev. Upton is not a newcomer to the Wyoming Valley. He had previously served as Associate Pastor of the Church of Christ Uniting, Kingston, with Rev. Charles Gommer. He served in that capacity for 10 years before becoming an Interim Pastor.

On Sunday, March 25, following the 11 a.m. worship service, a coffee hour will be held in the Miracle Building of the Church. An invitation is extended to all to come and welcome Rev. Upton to the church and the community.

Godparents are Pam Coburn and Don Rice. Paternal grandparents are Barbara Halsey and Donald Rice. Maternal grandparents are Lorraine Coburn and the late Thomas Coburn.

Former destroyer escort sailors being sought

A nationwide search is now in progress to locate former destroyer escort sailors.

Of all the major warships produced by the navies of the world, the U.S. Navy destroyer escorts were the most numerous and the most diverse in tactical deployment. Five hundred destroyer escorts were built and almost 500,000 sailors served in these ships during World War II, Korea and Viet Nam.

These fine ships are all gone now. Some were transferred to foreign navies but the majority were either sunk as targets in testing missiles or more modern weapons or scrapped.

Information concerning the Destroyer Escort Sailors Association may be obtained by contacting John F. Cullinan, 2920 Karen Drive, Chesapeake Beach, MD 20732 or by calling (301) 257-6322.
