Michael Williams gains scholarship to Rensselaer

Michael Williams, a senior at Dallas High School, has been awarded a scholarship to Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute where he will pursue his college education with an engineering major. RPI is located in Troy, N.Y. and is the oldest engineering school in the United States.

While at Dallas, Mike has participated in baseball and basketball. He is a member of the Student Council, the Gifted Program, American Literature Field Studies and construction crew. Mike is also a NEDT award winner, first place winner in the Stock Market Game, a National Leadership and Service Award winner, and has won a U.S. National Award in Science, and is an Honor Roll student.

Mike has been active in Back Mountain sports programs, participating in soccer, baseball and basketball. He is a member of St. Therese's Church.

Mike is the son of Mike and Carol Williams, Shavertown. He has a sister Geraldyn, a sophomore at Hamilton College, Clinton, N.Y.; brother Chris, a sophomore at Dallas High School; and a brother David, a fourth grade student at Westmoreland. Mike's grandparents are Florence Killiri of West Pittston and the late Tony Killiri and Leo and Lena Williams of Mountaintop.

Dallas SADD to hold dance

A SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving) dance for Dallas Middle School students in grades seven through nine will be held on Friday, March 30 by the SADD chapter at Dallas Middle School. The theme of the dance is "Hats off to SADD", a peaceful protest against drinking and driving. Over 25 prizes will be donated by merchants throughout the valley for the "hat contest". Music will be provided by DJ "Hummin' with Helch".
