Community invited to honor outstanding girls

GFWC/PFWC The Harveys Lake Women's Service Club a member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs will hold a special "Community Night" for its program on Thursday, April 5, at the Lake-Noxen Elementary School. Nine senior women from Lake-Lehman High School will be honored that evening. The "Outstanding Girls of the Year" are selected in conjunction with the guidance department of the high school under the direction of Miss Sylvia Bator. The women are Shelly Hanson, Megan Kozemchak, Nicole Gardner, Rebecca Emelett, Molly White, Heather Salko, Robyn Pavlick, Michelle Lankwarden and Kimberly Vollrath.

"We are very proud of all our fine young women graduating this year from Lake-Lehman High School," said Dr. Karen Boback, Education Chairman of the Harveys Lake Women's Service Club. "This year's senior class has some very fine examples of leadership, academic excellence and community involvement."

President Mary Jude Swanson added, "These young women are wonderful examples of women making a statement in our society. We hope that these young adults continue to strive towards Leadership roles in the community."

Community Events Co-Chairman, Joyce Birt extended an invitation to the community by saying, "We invite all our friends and neighbors from the Harveys Lake and surrounding communities to join us in our tribute and be our special guests for the evening."

All interested community members are invited to attend this special community night at the Harveys Lake Women's Service Club. The date is Thursday, April 5, 8 p.m. For further information about "The Girls of the Year" or the Harveys Lake Women's Service Club contact any club member or call 639-5325.
