

Sweet Valley church slates Easter show April 13-14

One of the most beautiful traditions observed in the Back Mountain area at this time of year is the annual Easter musical presented by the choir of the Sweet Valley Church of Christ. In years past, visitors to the program have gazed in awe and have had their hearts blessed by the church's portrayal of Christ's life and His last days on earth. This year, the choir, led by Cindy Evans of Sweet Valley, and a group of dramatists will combine efforts to once again present an inspiring message.

This year's musical will be held on Friday and Saturday, April 13, 14 at 7 p.m. It is entitled "Celebrate Life", and according to Evans, it is a musical that is not entirely all that unfamiliar with the congregation.

"We have performed this musical before," said Evans, "and since then, many people have asked us when we are going to do it again. It seems to be a favorite among all age groups. It's both uplifting and inspiring. We will be adding different things to it this year though, so even if someone has already seen us do it before, they'll be in for a pleasant surprise if they come to see it this year."

"Celebrate Life" concerns itself with the greatest story every told - related by those who knew Jesus Christ best. Through the eyes of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, visitors will catch glimpses of the life of Christ, from His lowly birth to His triumphant resurrection and ascension. It is sure to touch the souls of everyone attending.

The Sweet Valley Church of Christ is located on Main Road, Sweet Valley, approximately 2.5 miles from Sheldon's Diner.

Nesbitt Auxiliary slates dinner dance

Members of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's Medical Branch Auxiliary recently met to finalize plans and send out invitations to their Broadway show "The Great White Way", an auction raffle-dinner dance scheduled Saturday, April 7.

The Auxiliary is bringing "Broadway" to the Fox Hill Country Club with a great floor show, fabulous costumes, and an outstanding band.

The evening will begin with cocktails and hors d'oeuvres at 6:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 8 p.m. and dancing to "Fifth Avenue" until 12 a.m.

Physicians and guests interested in attending "The Great White Way" may contact any auxiliary member.

Domestic Violence Center seeks volunteers

Are you interested in becoming part of an experience that keeps on giving? Being a volunteer gives you the opportunity to share your time and talents with others while receiving self-satisfaction and confidence. The Domestic Violence Service Center, a United Way member agency needs you. We provide a 24 hour Hotline, counseling, supportive services, legal advocacy and emergency shelter to victims of domestic violence and their children.

The D.V.S.C. is looking for individuals who are interested in helping others by offering their time for any of the following services; staffing the Hotline, providing supportive/option counseling, accompanying to court and legal appointments, assisting in the children's program and also assisting with community education projects.

The volunteer orientation will take place at 6:30 p.m., April 18, 1990 at the Albright United Methodist Church located on Dana and Grove Streets. This initial session will include an overview of Domestic Violence, information about the services the D.V.S.C. provides; volunteer opportunities within the agency. Interested persons who would like to attend this session are asked to call 823-5834 to register.
