Prepared for craft show

Reviewing plans for the "Crafts and More" Show are Marilyn Joyce, chairman; Connie Butler and Carol McDonald, members of the Dallas High School Soccer Club. The sixth annual craft show will be held Saturday, April 21, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Dallas Senior High School. Many craft people will be displaying their talents for sale such as "country wood" animals, doll houses, pot holders, silk flower arrangements, Amish dolls, candles, English china, rugs and much more. There is no admission charge to the show.

Kingston Twp. residents need burn permits

The advance of spring weather brings about the necessity of outside work. Residents of Kingston Township are reminded that closed container burning is permitted in the Township for the disposal of paper only, no other household trash is to be burned. The container must be covered with some type of screening to contain the debris and must be attended at all times. Container burning is permitted from dawn to dusk daily, with the exception of Sunday when no burning is allowed.

Township residents are also reminded that the open burning of wood, tree branches, tree leaves, paper or yard trimmings requires a Township Burning Permit. Only one open fire is allowed with each permit. The fire must be controlled at all times and adequate precautionary measures must be taken by the property owner. Open burning is permitted from dawn to dusk daily, with the exception of Sunday.

Township ordinance expressly prohibits the burning of leaves, branches, and lawn clippings in gutters along the Township roadways. Burning in the asphalt gutters weakens the pavement structure and causes the gutters to deteriorate rapidly.

Open burning permits may be obtained at the Kingston Township Municipal Building, 11 Carverton Road, Monday through Friday, between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Residents are reminded that a

Childrens' Theater Festival offers entertainment from around world

What is the Children's International Festival? According to director Susan Davis, the Festival is an event uniquely designed for children to develop an awareness of other cultures (their similarities and differences) and to gain an appreciation of live theatre. "It is not just for school groups," states Davis. "We encourage parents and grandparents to 'share a day of magic' with their children. Many principals have stated this is an excused absence as is the circus or the Bloomsburg Fair."

The Festival is structured so individuals can attend an acclaimed performance of an international troupe for one hour then spend as much time as they desire at Kirby Park and the Armory. According to Davis "The $3.50 admission purchases far more than just the excitement of the theatre. We have storytellers, mimes, musicians, a backyard circus, and jugglers for the children to see and participate with. Plus Jody Berg, our Playworks coordinator has spent months designing fascinating crafts for the children to make and take home that relate to the theatre performances. The children can see the Irish Mummies in St. Stephen's then make a headdress at Playworks that will allow them to repeat their experience over and over at home."

The International companies and their schedules are: 1) The Naa Kahadi Theatre of Alaska presenting a trilogy of Tlingit Indian legends at the Dorothy Dickson Darte Center for the Arts Wednesday May 16, 10 a.m. and 12:30; Thursday, May 17, 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.; Friday, 10 a.m., 12:30 p.m. A special evening performance will be held Wednesday May 16 at 6 p.m.

2) The Armagh Rhymer - a highly skilled group of mimes, ballad singers and dancers in the tradition of Irish Mummies performing at St. Stephen's, Wednesday, May 16, 9:30 and 1:30; Thursday, 10:30, 12:30; Friday, 9:30 and 12 noon.

3) The Moscow Puppeteers from Russia will paint a canvas of magic as they demonstrate the "Magic Pipe" at the Jewish Community Center Wednesday, 9:30 and 12:30; Thursday, 10 a.m. and 12:30; Friday, 9:30 and 12 noon.

4) Les Transporteurs de Reves is an exhilarating French Canadian circus. These 'Dream Carriers' will present a special Saturday matinee at 1 p.m. at the F.M. Kirby Center. Regular performances will be: Wednesday, 9:30 and 12:30; Thursday, 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.; Friday, 9:30 and 12 noon.

5) The unique production of 'Toward Oz' will be held at the Irem Temple by the Children's Theatre of Verona, Italy. This imaginative interpretation of the Wizard reassures us that the best we have is in ourselves. Shows will be held: Wednesday, 10 a.m. and 12 noon; Thursday, 9:30 and 12:30; Friday, 9:30 a.m. and 12:30.

Tickets are still available for most performances according to Jean Ferrara, Festival Assistant. To order your tickets, call the Kirby Box Office, 826-1100 or the Festival Office 829-KIDS.

"It is fun, it is educational, it is affordable." Davis also states she hopes to see everyone at the Festival!

I have time to enjoy life now . . . no more worries!

*I've always been independent, and I want to stay that way. But living in my own home was beginning to control ME. I worried about things. The yard work, snow on the sidewalk — even taking out the trash became a concern!
Sometimes I wondered what might happen if I fell — could I get to the telephone?
I didn't feel independent — just worried about things. The folks at Lakeside helped me change all that. This is my home now, and I'm delighted to be here.
I come and go as I please, and there's always someone available if I need help with anything. There are things to do, too — morning coffees, card games and outings.
My family loves to visit me here and I can relax and enjoy their company. Coming to live at Lakeside is one of the best decisions I've made!
If you're considering an Assisted Living Program, please call us. We'd be happy to arrange a tour of Lakeside.*
