Dallas prison volunteers honored

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

The State Correctional Institution of Dallas honored approximately 70 volunteers at its 5th Annual Recognition Ceremony, Thursday, April 19.

A special presentation of presentations by the choral group of Catholic and Protestant Choirs under the direction of Donald Winston, director opened the program.

Superintendent Joseph M. Ryan expressed appreciation to the volunteers for their work throughout the past year, on behalf of his staff.

Presentation of awards which included engraved certificates and ceramic pitchers bearing the insignia of Pennsylvania were presented to each of the volunteers by Chaplain James Pall, Protestant Chaplain and Rev. Clement J. Pidskoch, C.S.C., Catholic Chaplain.

Among the local volunteers honored for their work with the residents were Phyllis Jones, Ingrid Prater, Sr. Barbara Craig, Sr. Julia Baird, instrumental in beginning the volunteer program many years ago; Mary Lou Swingle and William Dancewicz, Penn's Woods Girl Scout representatives. Volunteers from Allentown, Philadelphia, New Jersey and other area were also among those honored.

The certificates and the ceramic were done by the prison residents in the printing and arts and crafts shops.

Refreshments were served under the direction of John Doknovitch, food service manager.

Township tables subdivisions

By CHARLOT M. DENMON

Dallas Township Planning Commission and zoning board members met prior to the township supervisors meeting, Tuesday, April 17, to act on applications for permits presented for subdivisions.

It took members only a short time to table the petitions until a special meeting could be held April 24, because the petitions did not contain the necessary information.

Tabled until the special meeting were request for sub-divisions by Arthur Miller for property on Hill Street; a sub-division by Keenan, property on Carpenter Road; a sub-division by Norman Darling, property on Hildebrandt Road; a one lot subdivision by Goodleigh Farm; and a sub-division of land for townhouses by College Misericordia.

The petitioners were informed to obtain the proper information and re-file their applications at the next meeting. Township zoning officer Leonard Kozick reported that in the College Misericordia application there was a question about a deed before the request can be resolved.
