Dallas prison inmates plan Crop Walk Saturday

Some 400 inmates are expected to participate in a Crop Walk in the prison yard at the State Correctional Institution at Dallas on Saturday, May 12.

The purpose of the walk is to raise money for Church World Services and St. John's Hospice in Philadelphia. Church World Services provides funds to a variety of social service agencies that provide for the needs of the poor and needy. St. John's Hospice is a Soup Kitchen/Shelter in the city of Philadelphia that feeds and houses hundreds on a daily basis.

This is the 3rd year a Crop Walk will be held at Dallas. It is being sponsored by the St. Dismas Chapter of Bread For The World (BFW). BFW is a national Christian citizen's movement concerned with the problem of world hunger. The St. Dismas Chapter is the only prison chapter in existence. There are 70 inmate members and 26 Associate Members from the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton area. Many of those Associate Members will join the inmates for the walk.

The St. Dismas Chapter is coordinated by Fr. Clement J. Podskoch, C.S.C. He is the Catholic Chaplain at Dallas. Jack Pacewicz, a 36 year old Scranton native is the Resident Coordinator of the chapter.

Last year the men raised nearly $1800 for the Church World Services, and VISION, a Wyoming Valley program that provides for the needs of the homeless. This year the men hope to raise $3000. Money is being raised through donations by inmates, their families, supporters of the group in local communities, pledges from the Dallas L.I.F.E. Association, Alcoholics Anonymous, the Centurion Jaycees, the Latin American Culture Study group, the Catholic, Protestant and Muslim communities at the prison, and the sale of Crop Walk T-Shirts.
