Back Mountain Jaycees gain Chapter of the Year honors

The Back Mountain Jaycees were recently named "Chapter of the Year" at the year-end meeting of the Pennsylvania Jaycees Region 4, which encompasses all of Northeastern and part of Central Pennsylvania.

Presenting this honor to the local chapter was regional director Donna Cupinski. Cupinski cited the Back Mountain chapter for its outstanding leadership training efforts through community service during the 1989-90 year. The annual award is given to that local chapter which demonstrates the Jaycees tradition of sharing the opportunity for personal growth and community betterment.

Accepting the award for the nearly 80 members of the Back Mountain chapter was Chairman of the Board John J. Jablowski, Jr., Hanover Township. As president, Jablowski led the chapter to the largest growth in membership and community activities in its history. The chapter has been a consistently top-ranked chapter in Pennsylvania throughout the past year.

Also at the meeting, Karen Schleyer, Dallas, was elected district director.

The Back Mountain Jaycees are a community oriented leadership training organization open to men and women from 21 to 40 years of age. The Jaycees meet the first Tuesday of every month at the Farmers Inn, Huntsville Road, Trucksville at 8 p.m.
