Lady Mountaineers drop title game

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

The Dallas Lady Mountaineers led 5-2 going into the sixth inning of their game with Crestwood last Wednesday. Despite putting plenty of runners on base, the Comets had been unable to score against the Dallas defense.

But the sixth inning was a different ball game, as the Comets rallied to score four runs and take a 6-5 lead. But Dallas was not to be denied and in the bottom of the sixth scored four runs to go in front 9-6.

Then the Comets decided to show they had come to win and pushed eight runs across in the top of the seventh inning on five hits — two by Justine Nemshick, who went 5-for-5 for the day — one walk, three errors and a sacrifice.

The Lady Mountaineers came back to score two runs in the bottom of the seventh, but a double play stopped their rally and gave the Comets the game.
