Legion picks up three wins

By CHARLOT M. DENMON Staff Writer

The Back Mountain American Legion team went 3-for-3 last week defeating Nanticoke 6-1 Saturday, shutting out Hanover 2-0 Wednesday night and taking Northwest-Benton 6-2 Monday at the Dallas High School field.

The Legion boys moved their record to 6-1 with the three wins in the Wyoming Valley League.

Keith Schultz picked up the win for the Back Mountain striking out eight and walking none. Schultz also drove out a long triple to the outfield for the team.

Chris Engle was the power at home plate hitting 4-for-4 and driving in two runs. The Back Mountain took a 3-0 lead in the first inning when Ray Russin walked and Troy Strauser singled. Both boys advanced a base when Matt Butler grounded out and both came in to score when Engle knocked out a long triple to left field. Rich James hit a double to drive in Engle with the third run of the inning.

In the third inning Engle hit a single and came home on Schultz's triple, then James sent Engle with a double after the Back Mountain boys had moved to 4-0 in the second inning.

Nanticoke scored its only run in their half of the third.

In Wednesday's game with Hanover, Back Mountain took a 1-0 lead in the first inning on a walk by Ray Russin and an RBI single by Sam Gorgone. Troy Strauser scored the second run for Back Mountain in the sixth inning when he went to first on a walk, stole second and reached home on an error.

Chris Engle picked up the win for the local Legion team when he gave up only two hits, struck out 15 and walked none.

In last Monday's game, Keith Schultz was credited with the win after relieving Sam Gorgone on the mound. Schultz struck out three and walked only one.

Northwest-Benton took an early first inning 2-0 lead and held down the Back Mountain until the fifth inning when the boys rallied to score three runs in the inning and three more in the sixth.

Matt Butler knocked out two singles, one in each inning and Engle drove out a homerun to pick up an RBI and score a run. Troy Strauser scored two of the Back Mountain team's runs. Butler scored one run and picked up an RBI. Sholtis and May scored the other two runs for the Back Mountain.

Teener Athletics off to strong start

The Back Mt. Teener Athletics have burst into the 1990 season with five straight wins. In the first game with the Dodgers Noel Alvarez made his pitching debut with a 5-2 1-hitter, while striking out 15. Randy Slaff in his first teener game went 3 for 3 with a double and three RBI's. Andy Flint got two hits with a double.

The A's Jason Davies picked up a 13-3 victory over the Brewers in the next game. Flint, Slaff, and Brian Brady led the hitting assault with two hits apiece in an 11 hit attack. Davies and George Marut each doubled for the A's. Bailey went 2 for 2 with a double for the Brewers.

Keri Kuzma named to all-star teams

Keri Kuzma, of Centermoreland, a member of the women's softball team at Luzerne County Community College, has been named to the Eastern Pennsylvania Collegiate Conference all-conference team and the Pennsylvania Collegiate Athletic Association all-state team.

Kuzma, who played second base for the Minutemaid, had a .317 batting average, and led the team with a fielding percentage of .966 for the 1990 season.

A graduate of Tunkhannock High School, Kuzma is pursuing a Business Administration degree at LCCC.

1 win. Flint and Williams led the nine hit barrage with two each. Alvarez and Slaff also cracked doubles and Marc Barbose had a key RBI single for the A's. Jeff Malak had an RBI double for the Cardinals.

To close out the first half of the teener season, Brian Brady pitched the A's to an 8-2 win over Beaumont. Chris Williams had three hits and Jason Davies hit a solo homerun. Butcofski and Marut also tripled for the winners. Severs and Ball got two hits each for Beaumont.

For the season the A's defense has been bolstered by Jerrod Cooney, Marc Barbose and behind the plate George Marut.

Fisher pitches Yanks to 12-4 win over Lehman

By CHARLOT M. DENMON Staff Writer

Dave Fisher picked up a win for the Dallas Yankees on the mound and by contributing three runs himself to lead the team to a 12-4 victory over the Lehman Cardinals. Mark Finarelli, Dave Fisher and Joe Wallace were two-time hitters and Brian Karuza scored three runs. Jeff Malak led the Cardinals with two hits.

CARDINALS TOP DODGERS BEHIND CHAMBERLAIN

The Lehman Cardinals defeated the Dallas Dodgers 10-5 in the Teeners League behind Ernie Chamberlain on the mound. Charlie Siglin was credited with the loss.

Malak and Chamberlain had key hits for the Cardinals and Chris Salko added a double. Shawn Kelly turned in some outstanding defense at third base for the Cardinals. Brian Bird had a single and a double for the Dodgers.

BARASKI K'S SIX IN BREWERS 14-3 WIN

Chris Baraski pitched the Brewers to a 14-3 trouncing of Beaumont, striking out six and giving up only four hits. Baraski had a single and a double at the plate and Jared Baranowski knocked out two singles.

PACZEWSKI STRIKES OUT 14 AS YANKS WIN

The Yankees nipped Beaumont 2-1 in their game with Todd Paczewski pitching a two-hitter and striking out 14. Losing pitcher Chris Ball gave up only one hit, a single by Dave Fisher. Wagner and Oakley had the two hits for Beaumont.

BEAUMONT EDGES OUT DODGERS 5-4

Beaumont defeated the Dodgers 5-4 behind Chris Ball with Bogden the power at the plate for Beaumont going 2-for-4. Beaumont scored the winning run in the eighth inning after the Dodgers tied it up in the seventh. Tim Faux saved hit by the Dodgers when he caught a super out in centerfield for the Beaumont team.

WORONKO PITCHES, HITS ASTROS TO WIN

Harveys Lake Astros took the Brewers 9-5 with Will Woronko on the mound striking out eight and walking only four. He helped win his own game by going 4-for-4 with two doubles. Chris Traver, Russ Zimmerman and Rick Matsysik also had two hits for the Astros.

Matt Bailey had two hits for the Brewers.

BALL DOES IT ALL FOR BEAUMONT

Beaumont trounced the Astros 11-4 with Chris Ball picking up the win aided by relief pitcher Tim Faux. Brian Llewellyn was credited with the loss. Chris Ball went 3-for-3 at the plate and scored three runs. Donny Faux had two hits for Beaumont and Chris Traver drove out a three-run homer for the Astros.

YANKS WIN SQUEAKER 4-3 OVER BREWERS

The Yankees edged the Brewers 4-3 with Dave Fisher picking up the win after being relieved by Todd Paczewski. Fisher gave up only two hits. Jeff Kunkle pitched a great game for the Brewers in a losing effort. John Howell's walk with the bases loaded proved to be the winning run. The Yankees scored all their runs in the fourth with Paczewski and Karuza getting key hits.
